Epilogue 222

...so all alone i go the seconds tick the time out there's so much left to know and i'm on the road to find out...
- cat stevens

i am an individual ever searching for happiness through tears and frustrations always wanting to strive above
the complications of life knowing all i have to do is reach out...

wanting companionship someone to feel comfortable with to trust, to cry, and laugh with spend endless hours sharing ideas someone i can call a friend

throughout my life
i want only to be known as me and loved for that same reason.
so many loves
i've encountered on this road
and all have taught me something special love grows slowly and it can be painful
but love is only as beautiful as i allow it to be the decision is solely mine.

with each day
i rediscover truths
i've always known the beauty in a summer's afternoon turns my thoughts inward... to God... to the search for Truth and it is then i realize wisdom is only attained by living life the way you know is right true wisdom is learning to be free within yourself.

FALL

for what i do not only reflects my beliefs but my true self do not judge me - only accept me
maybe then, together we can discover what it might take us years to learn - alone
take my hand walk beside me
this is the beginning. . .

ARENA

New Scheduling Plan Proves Popular

"Hey, neat, we got English and history together."

"Oh, darn, I can't get science in the morning."

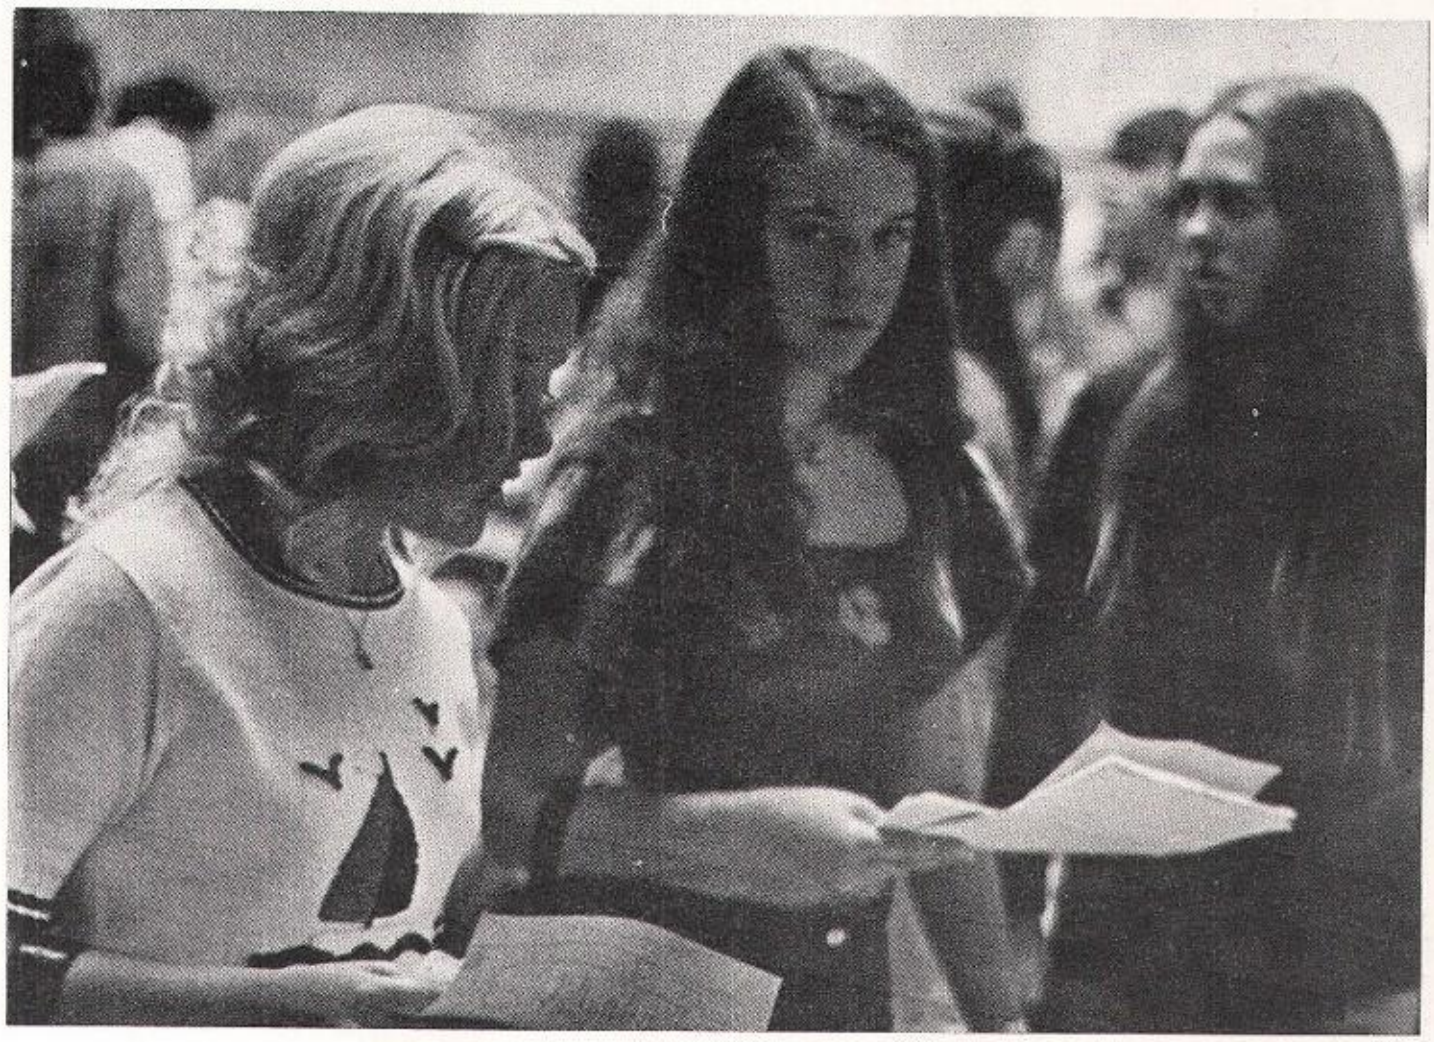
These were just a few of the comments heard as the school tried a new method for class scheduling this year. Generally it proved to be quite successful. Arena scheduling provided the opportunity for Lakers to choose their own classes and teachers.

But, it also had the disadvantage of students finding the classes they needed full. On the whole, students found that they could get their original schedule.

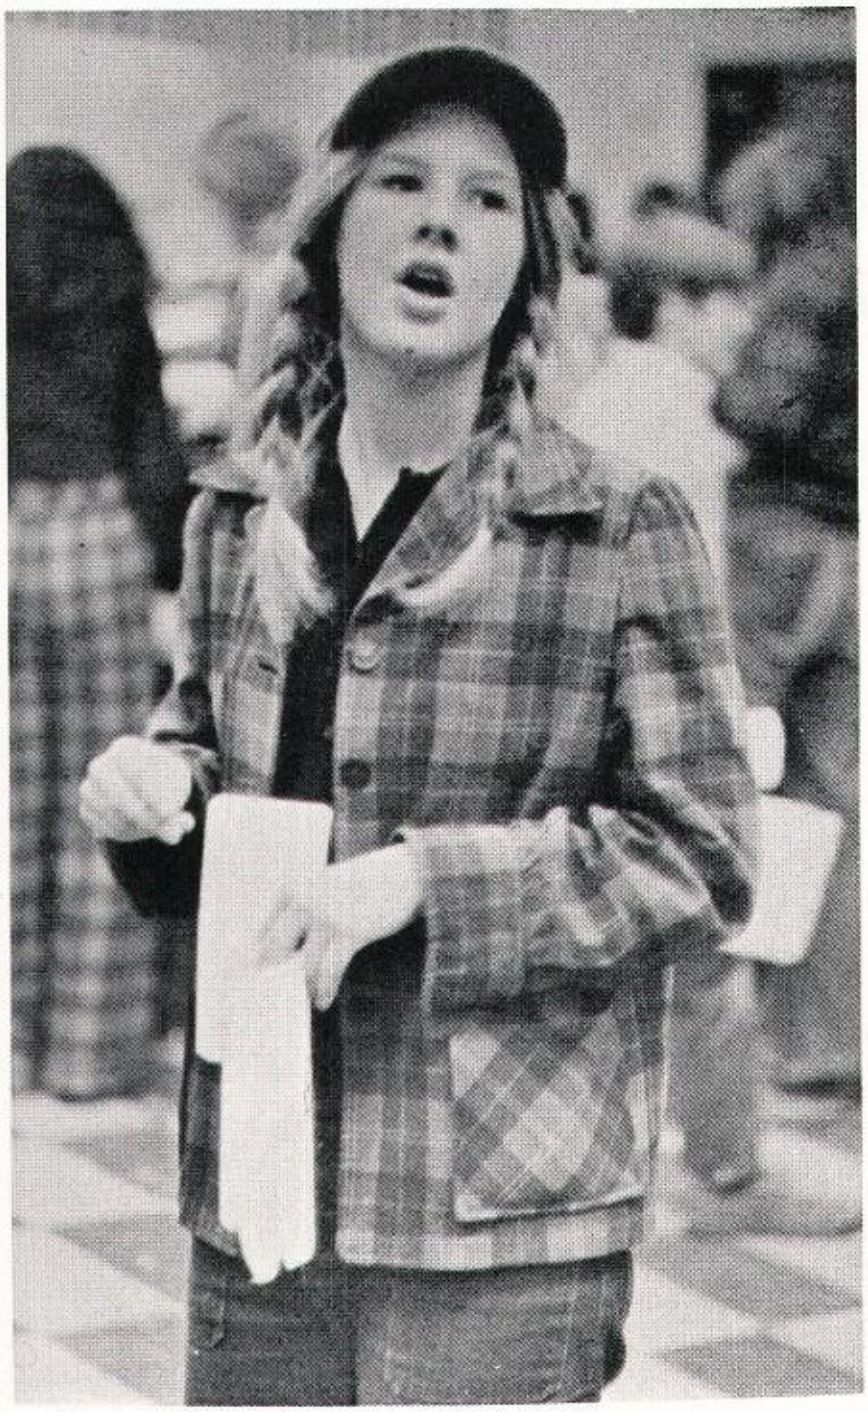
Arena scheduling will continue next year because of its effectiveness and success over computer scheduling.

Mrs. Dorothy West explains what classes are still open to Cindi Clautice.

Cindy Howard and Cindy Daniels check classes as they hurry through crowded history library.



Kristie Budahl was not the only one confused the first time through arena scheduling. But once they caught on to the system, the students seemed to favor it over older computer system.



Even the parents were involved in scheduling this year. Pete Hall's mother listens to a student's problem.

WORKSHOP

Leaders Review Censorship, 'hill'

Bright and early one Saturday in October, student leaders packed themselves into buses and headed for Twin Rocks Friends Camp to plan for the new year, discuss problems and enjoy one another's company.

Censorship of student publications, the problem of "the hill" and making the senate a more effective tool of the students were the main topics in the small groups to which everyone was assigned.

Beautiful weather enhanced the weekend. Both kids and faculty spent most of their "free time" on the beach.

Some people questioned the effectiveness of the workshop, but despite these opinions Leadership Workshop might have helped to unify some of the student body.

BREAKFAST

Proceeds Buy New Basketball, Gymnastics Uniforms

Despite the good food and delightful entertainment, the annual pancake breakfast, Oct. 29, was the least successful in the history of the school. The profit was a disappointing $585.85.

Possibly this was due to the fact that there was no class competition in ticket sales, although the juniors and seniors did manage a car rally.

The profit was divided so that 5% went to each class and the remaining 80% toward new basketball uniforms and boys gymnastic equipment.

Lively entertainment, provided by the Windjammers, Ann Swearingen, Megan O'Conner and others, seemed to add a special touch to the Sunday morning treat.

After finishing her shift, Frosh rally girl, Julie Emry, tries pancakes.

HOMECOMING

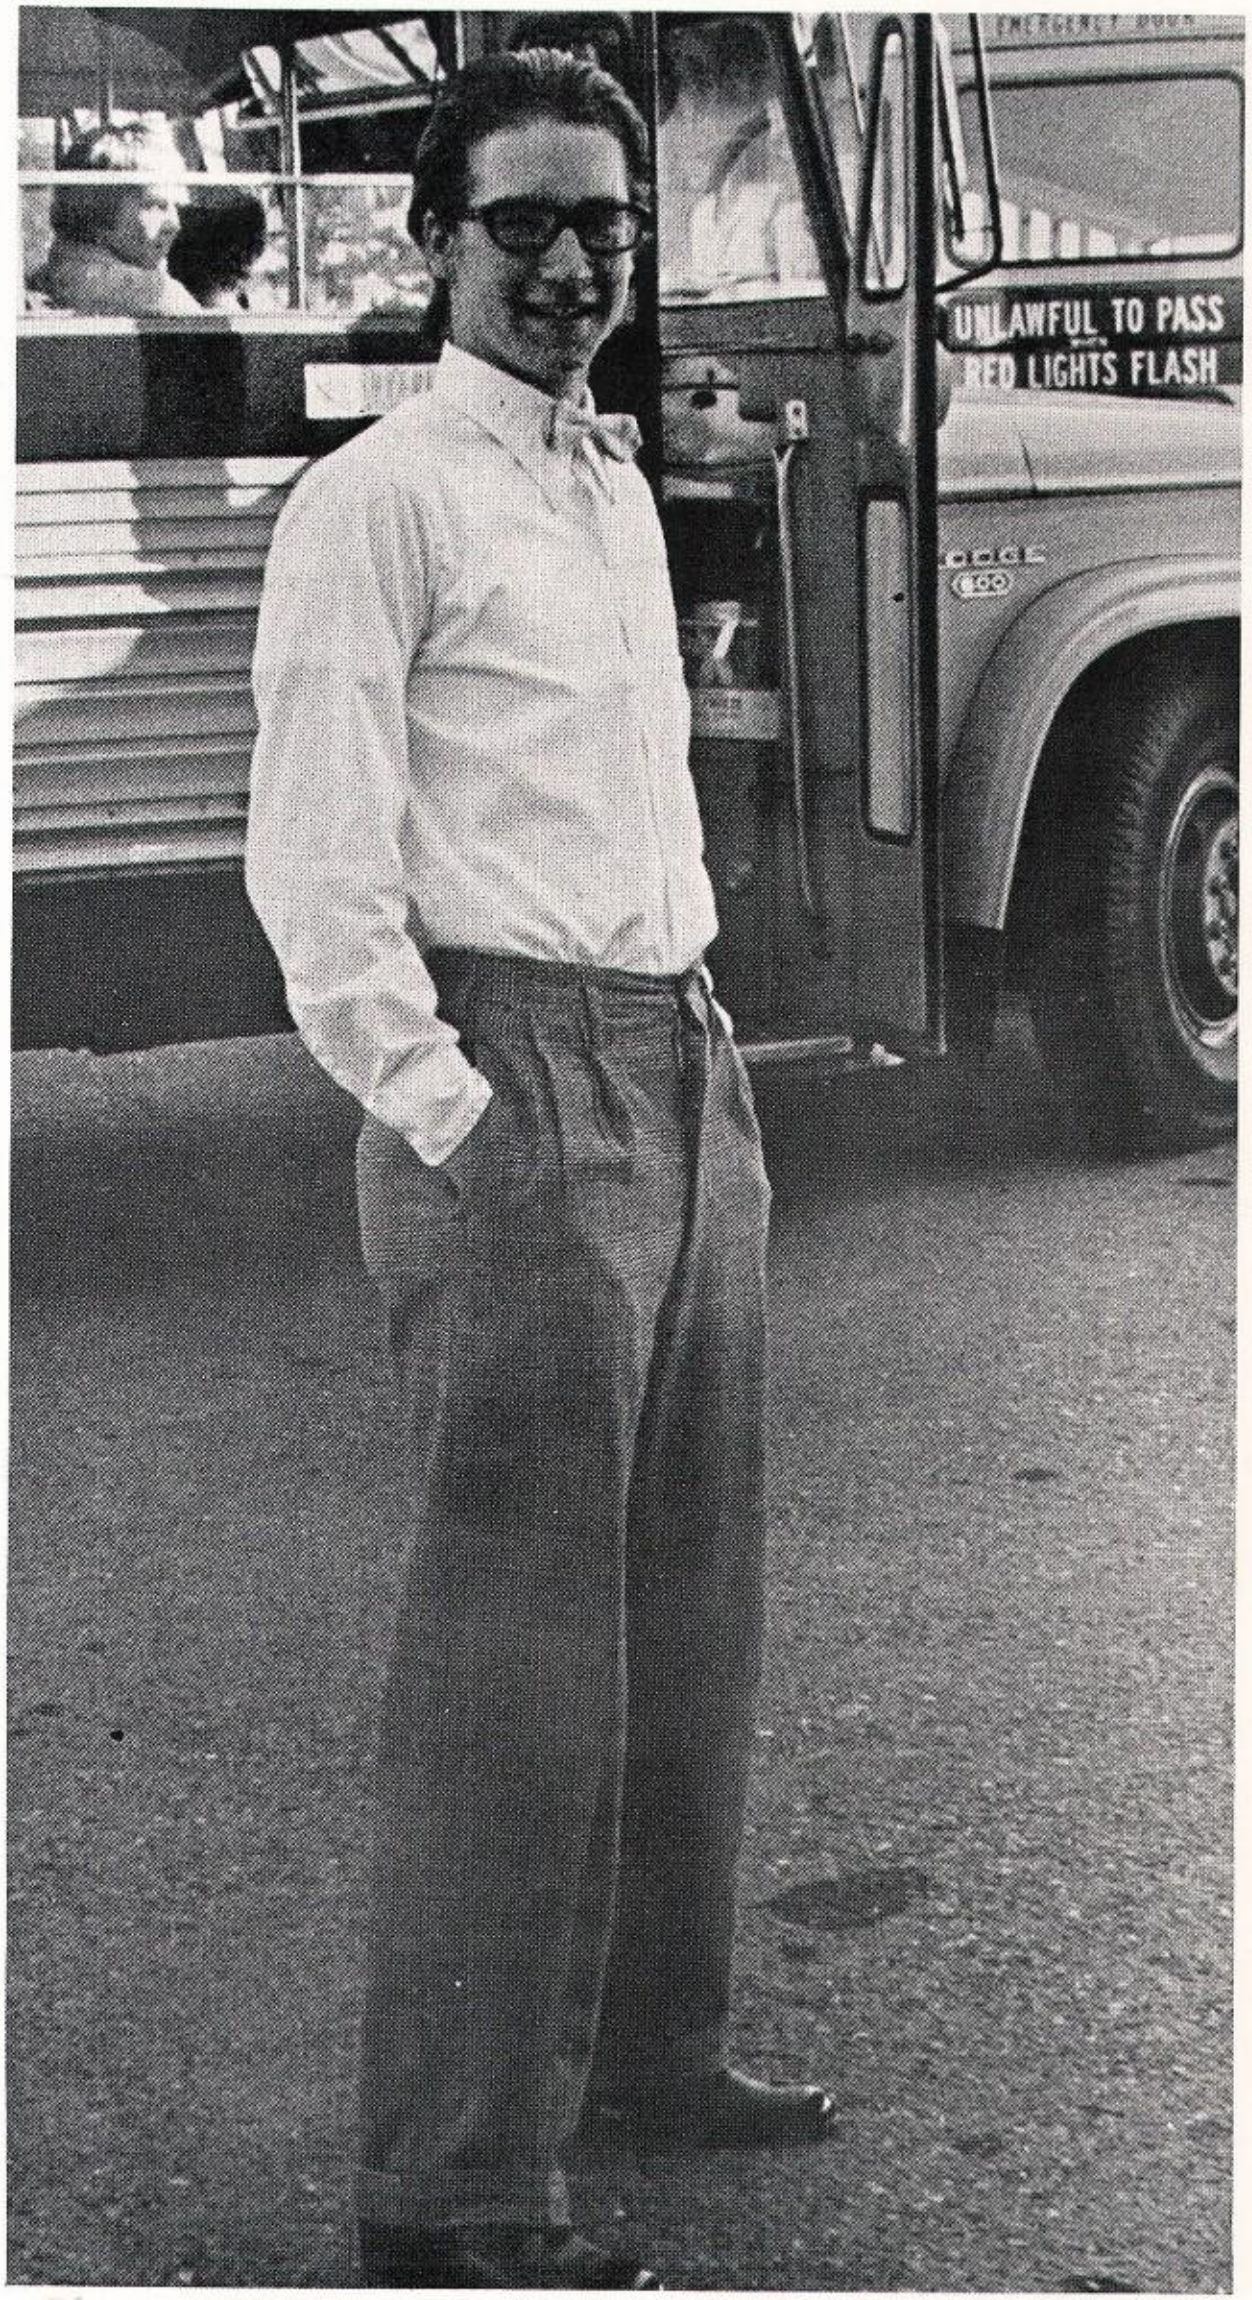
'Flapper Day' Starts Activities

The atmosphere of the entire week fit well with its theme, "Oh, Happy Day." Many activities such as Flapper Day and Hush Day were included throughout the sunny week.

During the Pie-Eating Contest, Senior Jim Neill managed to shovel down a whole chocolate pie in less than five minutes. Senior Keith Neely and Junior Bob Hinkle tied for Mr. Irresistable on Hush Day.

On Friday, the Junior and Senior class tied for first place in the float contest; then half of the school proceeded down through Oswego in the annual parade.

Friday night's football game against Gresham was a 20-3 success. It was followed by the dance entertained by the J.C. Boogie Blues Band.



A letterman's sweater helped Mary Turnock dress like the 50's, while Jeff Scott (right) relied on a white shirt and baggy pants to achieve the same effect.

(Left) Carrie Wilson and Vonda Ingram were happy with the comments they received on their 1950 dress on Flapper Day.

First Frosh Queen Chosen

Shouts of approval greeted Michelle Sweet as she was named Homecoming Queen, the first freshman ever to be crowned. Her court was Seniors Gail Ehman and Nan Gehrig, Juniors Kiki Poth and Lori Pajunen, Sophomores Jane Harries and Sherry Trulock, and Freshmen Kathy Van Hoomisen.

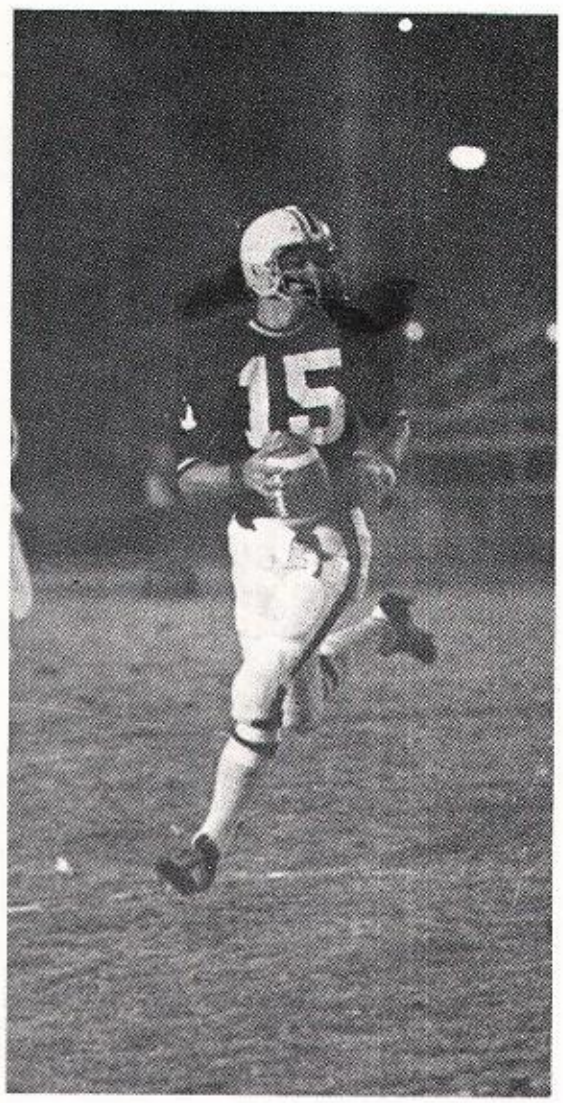
Rash of Injuries Kills Title Hopes

The Laker football team suffered through a frustruating season, finishing 5-4 for the year. Led by a strong contingent of Seniors and Juniors, as well as a pair of surprising Sophomores, the team clawed to victory in extremely emotional games such as the 7-0 upset of defending champion, The Dalles.

Despite winning that battle, it seemed as though LO lost the war as starting middle linebackers Gary Morean and Chuck Webster were both lost for the season. Those injuries seemingly set a precedent as a phenomenal rash of injuries to valuable starters struck the team. End Keith Neely was lost for the season with a broken arm and Sophomore Kent Howe missed several key games.



Quarterback Steve Bartelt looks for the open man. (Right) Stan Oyama, first team All-League offensive tackle, wipes mud off as he listens to halftime talk.

Although backup quarterback, Sophomore Eric Gassner was best known for his work on defense. His nailing of the Gresham quarterback for a loss helped LO win.

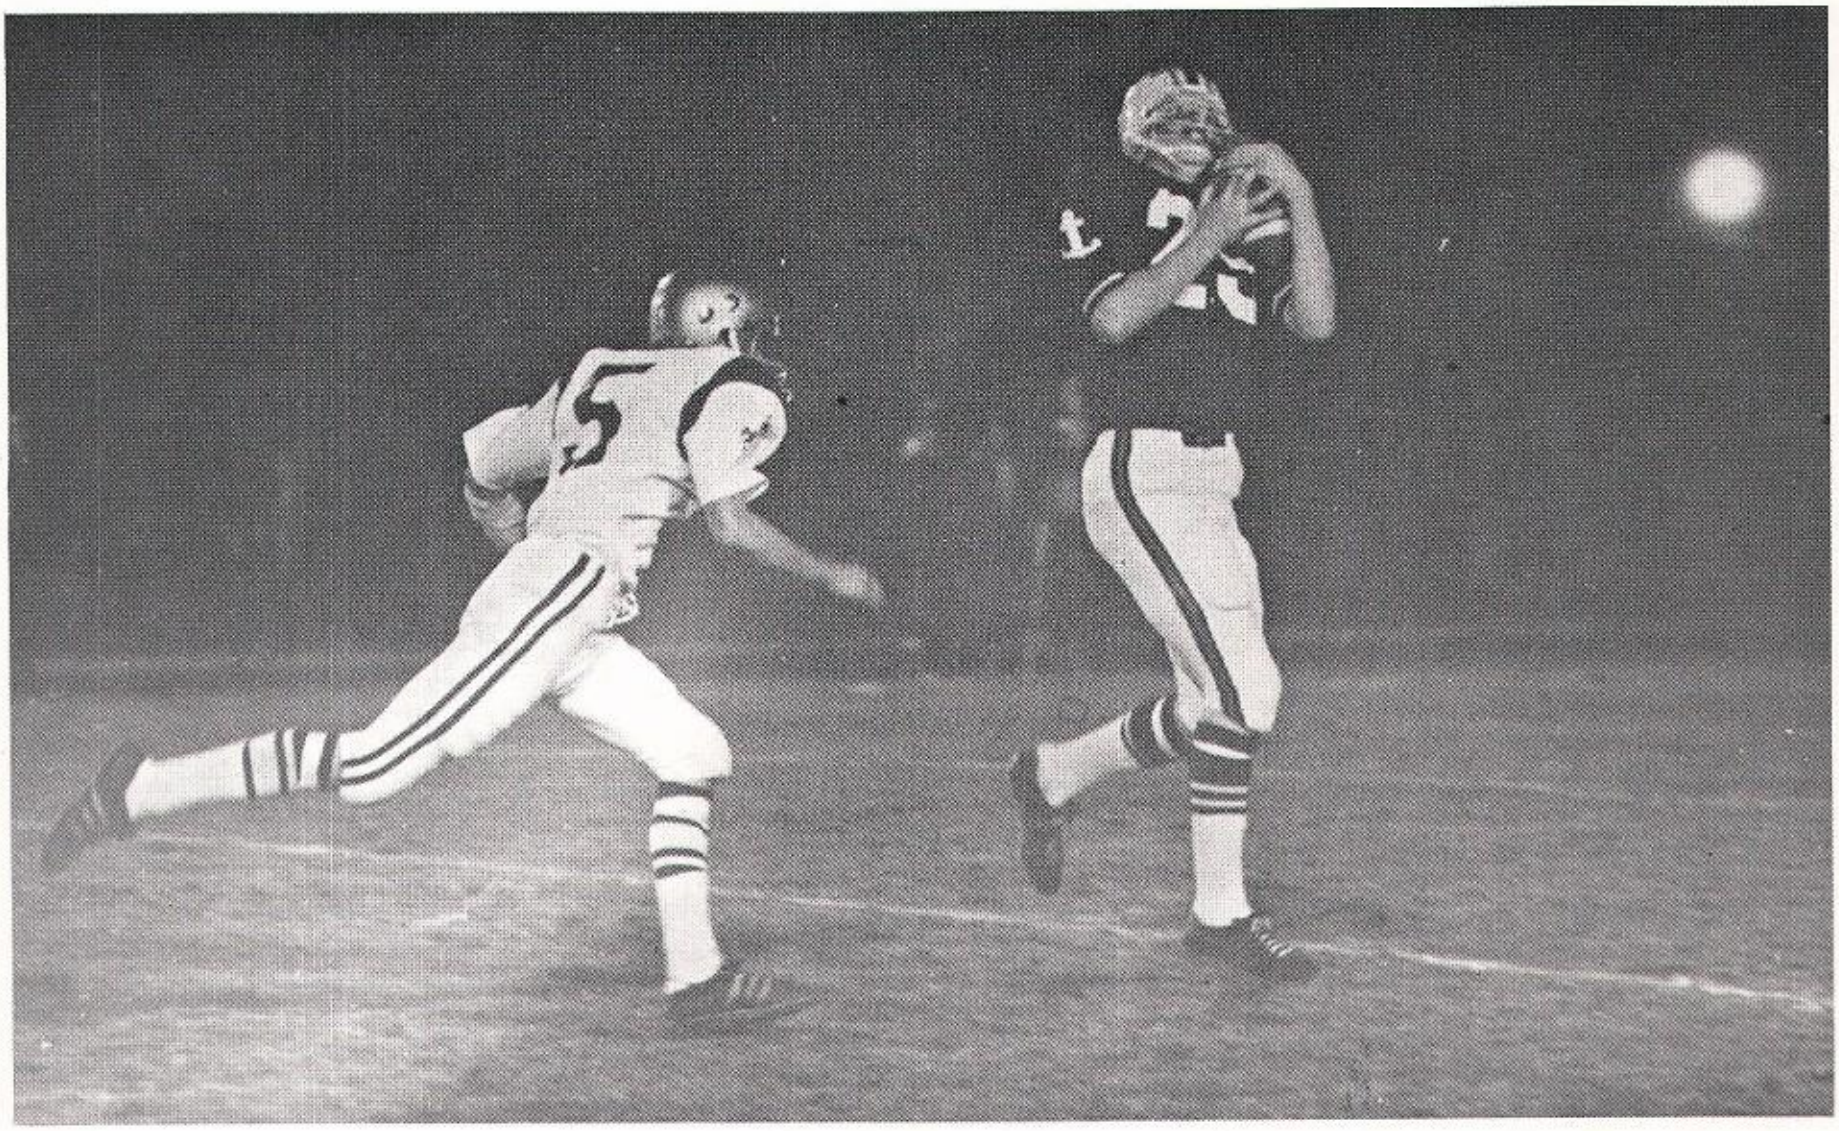
Second in Columbia Division



All-League end Dan Summers hauls in another pass and romps for good yardage against Reynolds. One of the most feared receivers in the league, Summers usually got two-man coverage from most teams. The Senior standout also made first team All-League on defense as safety.

Summers, Claunch All-League Choices

Two seniors, Bill Claunch and Dan Summers, made All-League on both offense and defense. Claunch made the offensive team as fullback and the defensive unit as end. Summers made offensive end and defensive safety.

Stan Oyama made first team offensive tackle, while center, Jay Child, made second team offense.

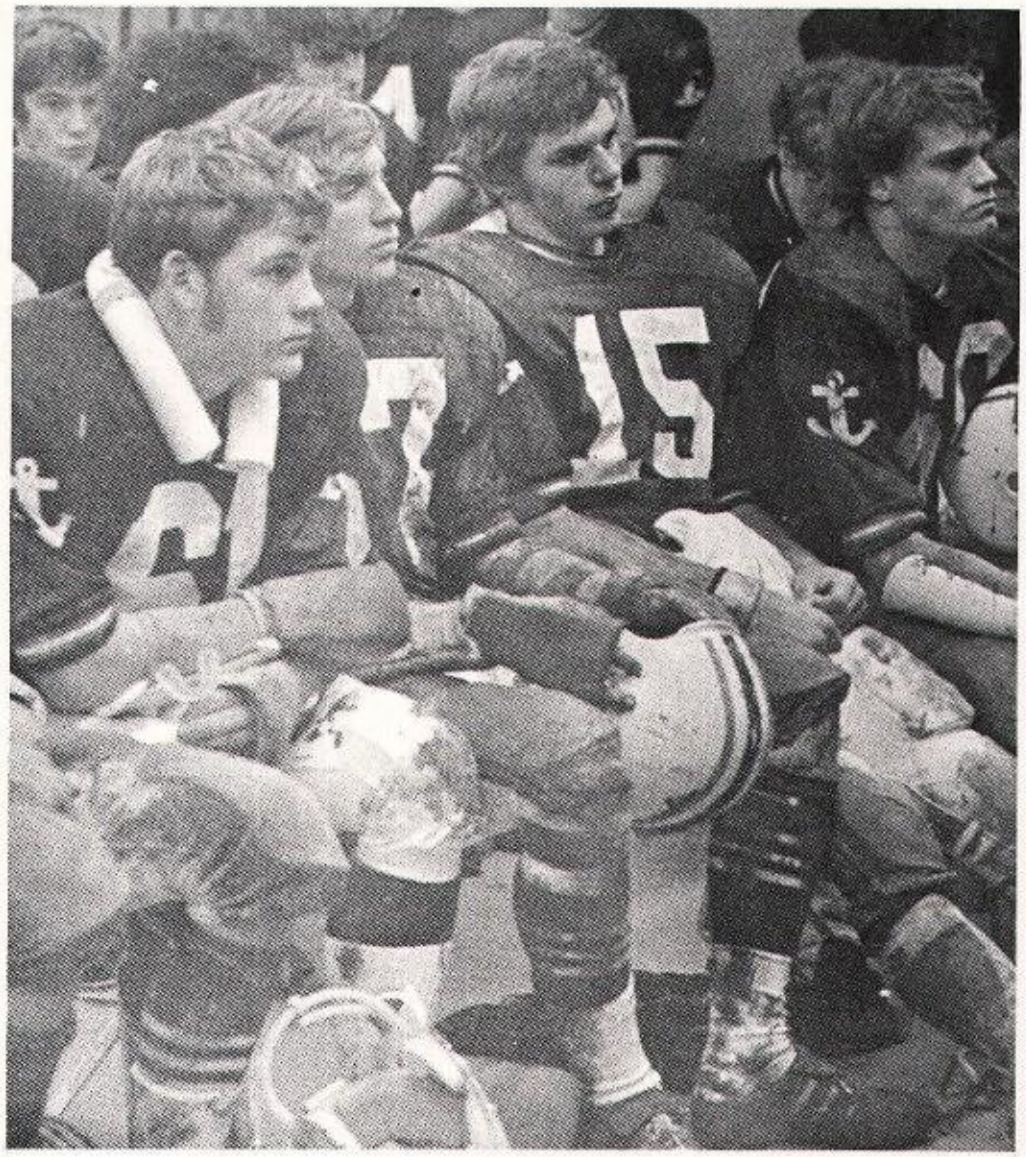
After the third game, LO's record stood unblemished at 3-0. A disappointing loss to Lakeridge followed by a very impressive slaughter of the highly touted Reynolds Lancers typified the ups and downs of the season.

"It was just the fact that there were too few bodies," reported Coach Boyd Crawford. "The boys that did play did an excellent job, but by the end of the season they were simply beat up," he continued as he summarized his feelings as to why LO lost three of its last four games.

One of those losses came during the division championship game at the hands of the eventual 1972 State Championship Centennial Eagles (30-6).

Inexperience also hampered the Lakers. Lack of turnout caused the JV season to be just 3 games long.

Dale Long, Dave Gillihan, Steve Bartelt, and Tony Clasen listen intently at halftime as Coach Boyd Crawford points out first half mistakes and gives second half instructions.



Sophomore Kent Howe sprints for a long gain against Hood River as tackle Stan Oyama trails the play. LO went on to post a 34-0 victory over the visitors.

All-League on both offense and defense, Bill Claunch gets a rare break from action.

Sophomore Eric Gassner (12) and Senior Jay Child (55) gang up to make the tackle on Dan Ostrom, Reynold's quarterback. Senior Greg Simmons (38) and Junior Danny Rustrum (39) rush in to help out.

Although Reynolds came in with a fine reputation, LO disposed of the Lancers, 34-14.

"I don't think the season was a disappointment because it all doesn't depend on winning. Just playing football is rewarding."

Frosh Win 4, Only Lose 3

The "A" team had a good season with a record of 4 wins and 3 losses. The "B" team pulled through with 2 wins and 4 losses. Its "big" win was a 12-6 victory over Lakeridge.

The "A" team was offense oriented and relied on plenty of touchdowns to notch its winning season. The "B" team concentrated on defense and was able to win by holding the other team down.

Leading players for both teams were Scott Baird, Steve Howe, Rick Hunt, and Doug Luetjen.

Both teams were fortunate as far as injuries; no one was seriously hurt.

One of the most promising Frosh players, Steve Howe, breaks for the end zone.

Scrambling for yardage on a broken play is quarterback Doug Luetjen. Tackle Kevin Buck (77) looks on.

RALLY

Watermelon Feed Refreshes Gridders

Starting with a watermelon feed after the annual inter-squad football game, the fall rally kept plenty busy.

The first outdoor pep rally in many years was held. Assistant Coach Larry Bowman led the football team through several spirited numbers, including the fight song. The football team was also persuaded to demonstrate various plays in front of the entire student body.

Fearless Freddie of KISN, who regularly predicted the Lakers would lose, made a surprise appearance at an assembly and this time he was right as he predicted a Laker victory.

Oh, Happy Day on the balloon certainly reflects rally girl, Jill Sorenson's, mood as she starts

Many jubilant Lakers joined the rally to welcome the team back for second half action.

Building Year Brings 'Significant Progress'

Two junior captains, Sam Hutchison and Jim Brown, led a spirited band of inexperienced cross country runners.

"Running need not be a person's whole life, but like love and power — when properly used–it can make one's life whole," is the philosophy of Coach Jim Musgrave. He believes the purpose of athletics is to teach the individual self-control and discipline.

"Just as strong bricks make strong walls, so strong individuals make strong teams," he said. "This was a building year, and we made significant and satisfactory progress."

The distance runners finished 10th at district among the 14 teams.

Ritter, Jones Again Place At State Meet

For the second year in a row, soph Todd Ritter and junior Kevin Jones represented the Lakers at the state meet where each garnered his second consecutive metal for finishing in the top six.

Ritter, who set a new district record of 496.85, placed third in the 3-meter diving at state. Jones, making his third consecutive appearance at state, placed sixth in the 100 yard breaststroke. Although he finished second in district, his time of 1:07.13 established a new school record.

With only seven lettermen on hand after most of them went to Lakeridge, the team goal was to move ahead of Tigard and Gresham in Wilco League competition.

The goals were accomplished as the Lakers swam past Tigard, 50-45, and Gresham, 55-40. Only losses to Reynolds and Lakeridge kept the boys from having a perfect season.

An outstanding distance swimmer, Frosh John Seton provided the Lakers with many valuable points in both the 200 and 400 yard freestyle.

Win Over Lakeridge Highlights Season

With eight returning letterwomen, the LO girls formed a spirited and competitive team. Made up strongly of sophomores, the Lakers managed to break even for the year, winning four and losing four.

In the most emotional contest of the year, LO upset the Pacers of Lakeridge, 50-45, in a meet that was not decided until the final event.

Early in the year soph Karen Ream broke the school record in the 100 yard breaststroke. Not satisfied with her performance, she came back to break in it again with her 1:21.8.

For Coach Dick Ruckdeschel, it was his 10th season of coaching both the boys and girls. As one team member stated, "I hope he will stay in coaching so that others will have the experience of working under a tremendous coach."

DRAMA

Dorothy Cushman Stars as M. Monroe

All out for Bus Stop!

On a cold winter night in a warm cafeteria, a small cast led by Dorothy Cushman, (LO's own Marilyn Monroe), presented the production Bus Stop. In many people's opinion, the play was just as well dramatized as the famed movie.

The cast and crew worked hard and enthusiastically to stage Bus Stop. Their efforts were obviously successful as opening night was a smash as were the succeeding performances.

With a relatively small and inexperienced cast, the play went smoothly and pleased the majority who attended.

Bo (Bill Peterson) becomes excited over the thought of returning to Montana and taking Cheri (Dorothy Cushman) as his bride.

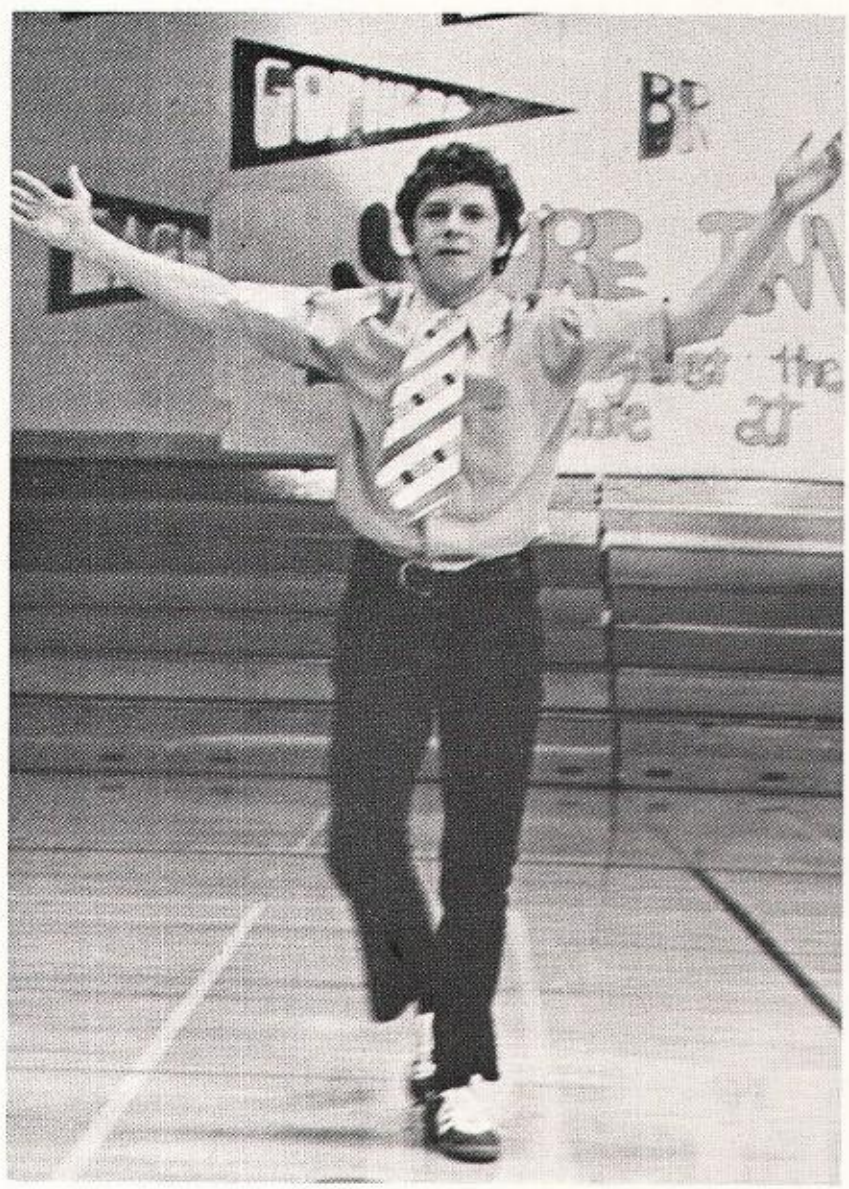
The Brethern entertained many Lakers with their music and dialogue although some were irked because it was a mandatory assembly.

KISN's Fearless Freddie predicted a LO win over Hood River by four touchdowns. Lakers won 34-0.



Rob Beadle led many yells during pep assemblies.

Since the Frosh lost, Doug Brynelson had to pay the price, a pie in the face.

ASSEMBLIES

The Brethern, Tug of War Entertain Lakers

A "Welcome Back" assembly began the school year. Students were introduced to Ofo Addo, LO's lovely foreign exchange student from Ghana, and all of the new teachers.

A mandatory assembly with The Brethren prompted some dissension from students while others enjoyed listening to their music and talking with them in small groups during free periods. The Brethren gave a free concert the same night at the Methodist Church in Oswego; many students from Lake Oswego High School and Lakeridge attended that concert.

Many pep assemblies were put on by the fall rally. Tug of war (an old favorite of LO), class competition, popping balloons, and throwing pies in the losers' faces were just a few of the spirited activities included at the pep assemblies.

Although most of the assemblies were non-mandatory, many Lakers attended and enjoyed them.

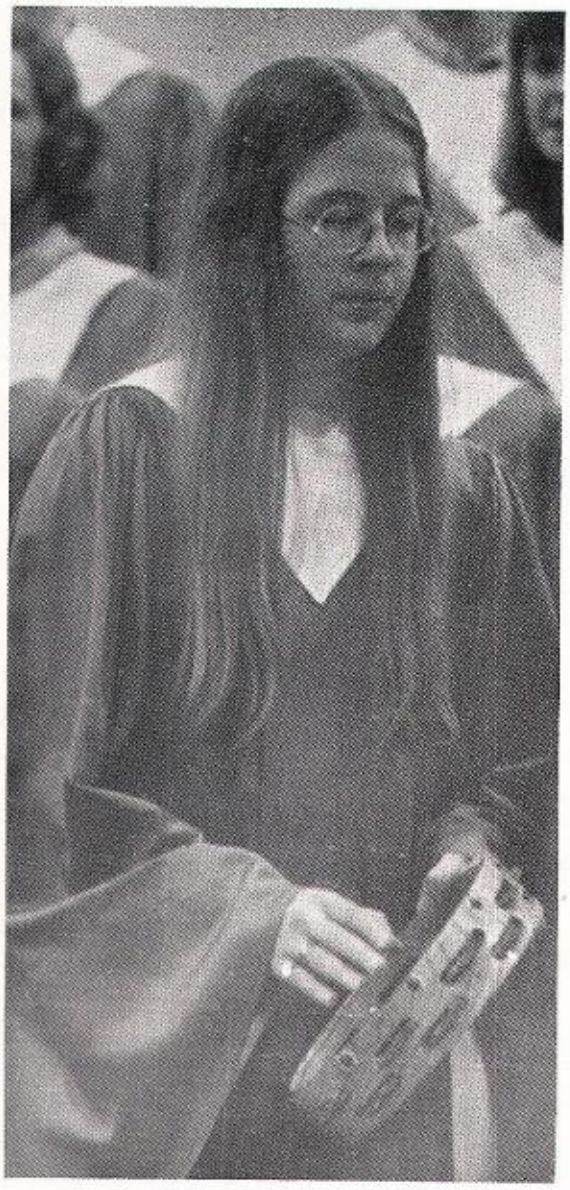
CHRISTMAS

Mr. Jeschke's Class Wins Door Decorating

The week's activities included the annual door decorating contest won by Mr. Jeschke's English class, the canned food drive with Tigard, caroling in the halls by the foreign language classes, and ended with the big dance featuring "Beyond."

Debbie Arnold and Ken Buck served as MC's.



Margaret Garner adds music to Christmas assembly.

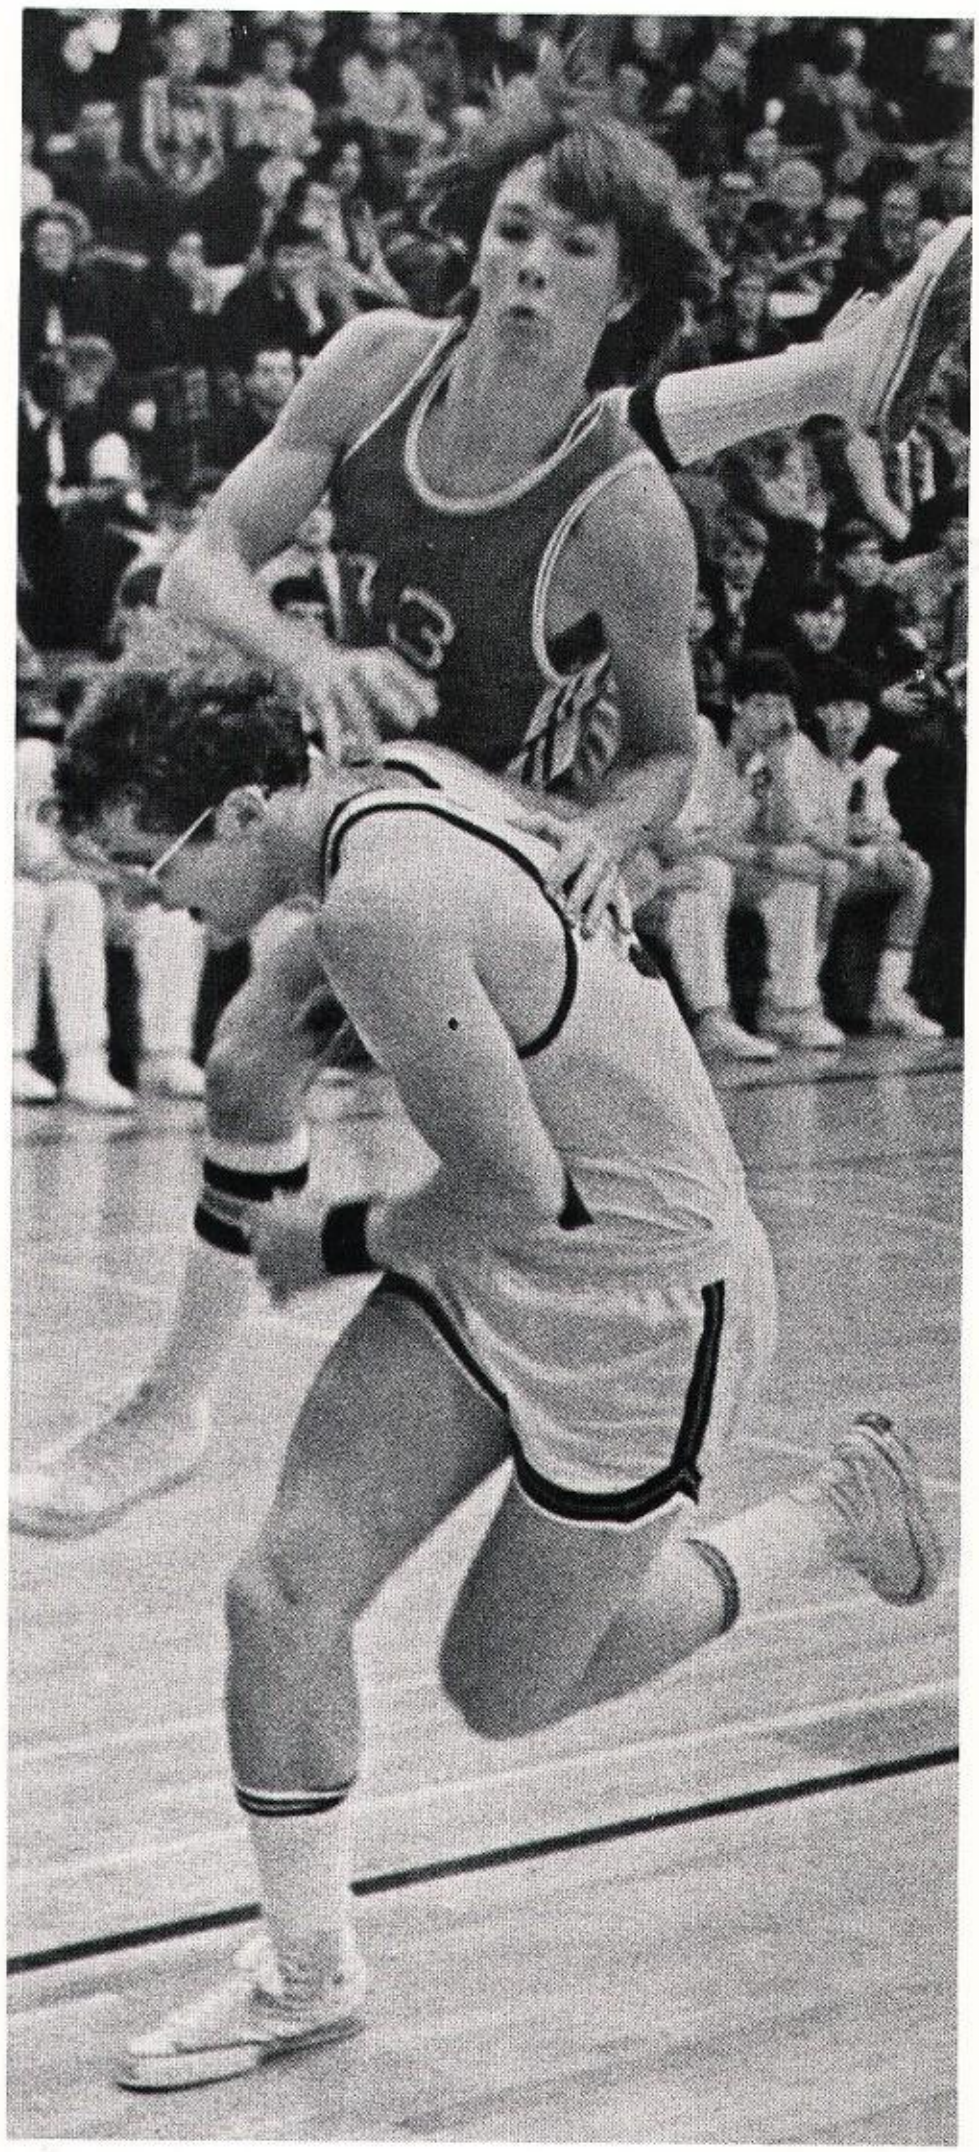
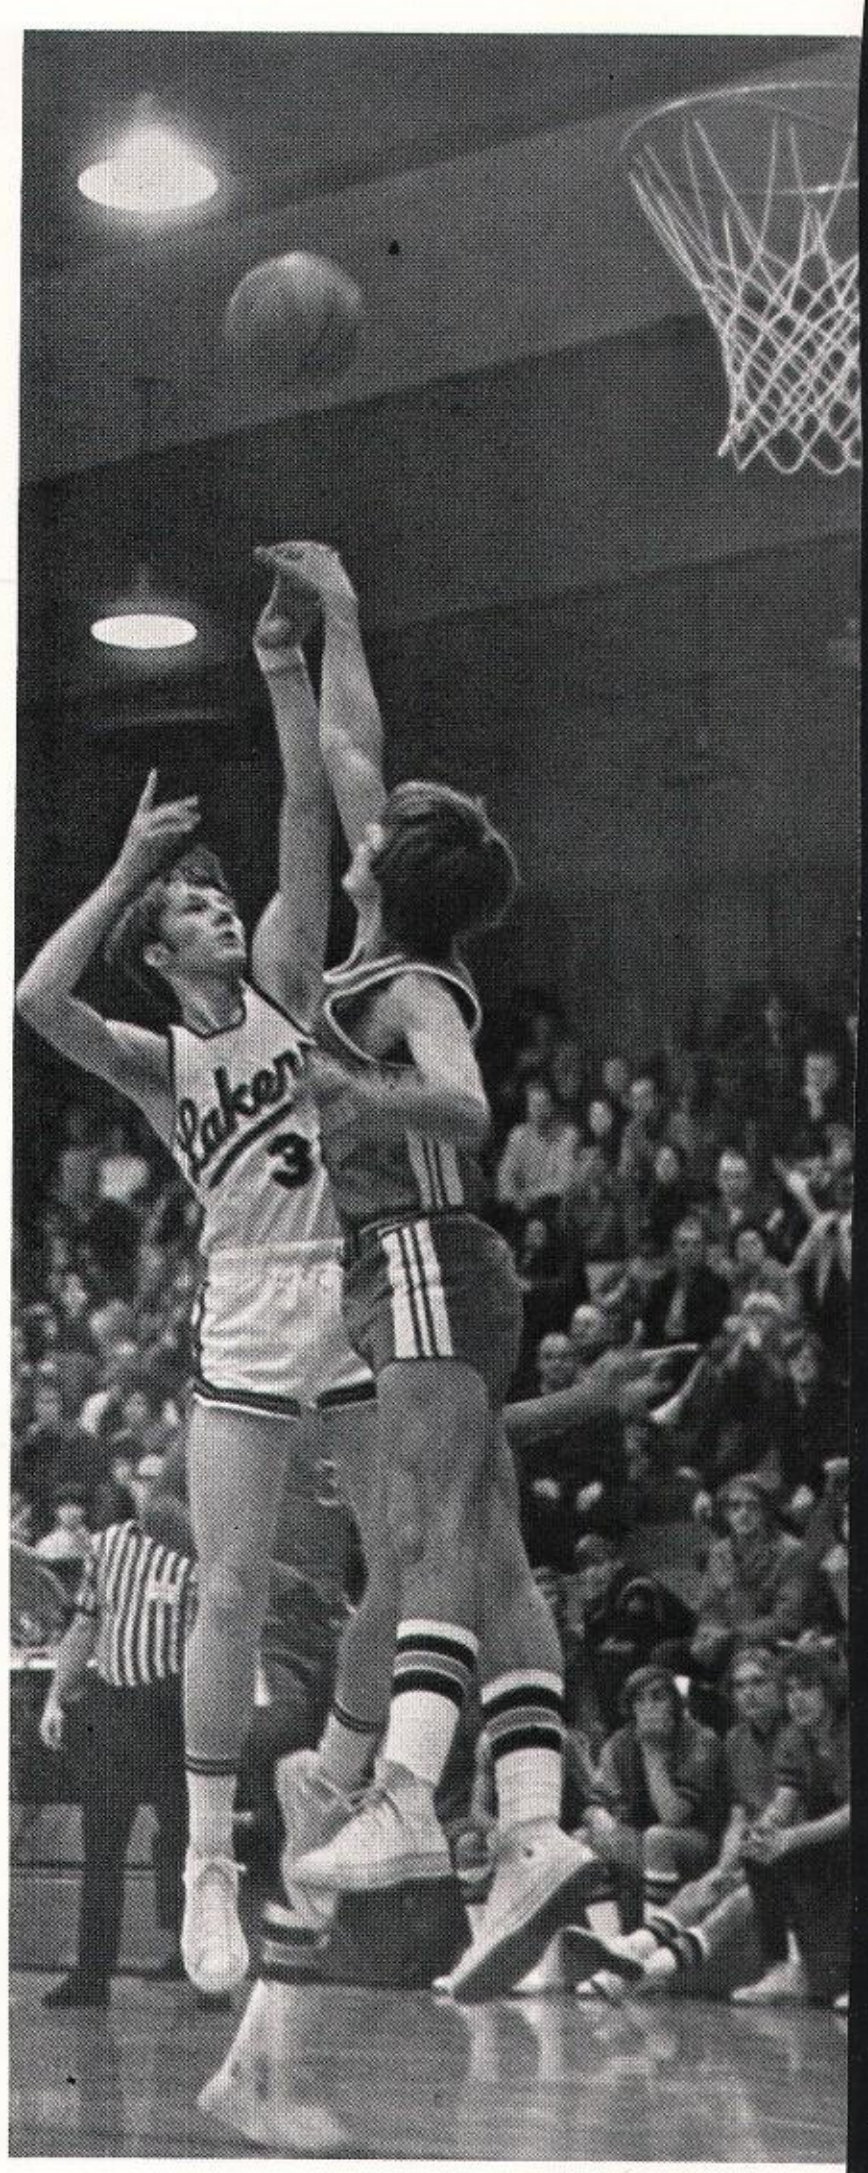
Stacie Dodd was surrounded by fellow juniors after the assembly.

Marilyn Veatch was the other junior representative on the court.

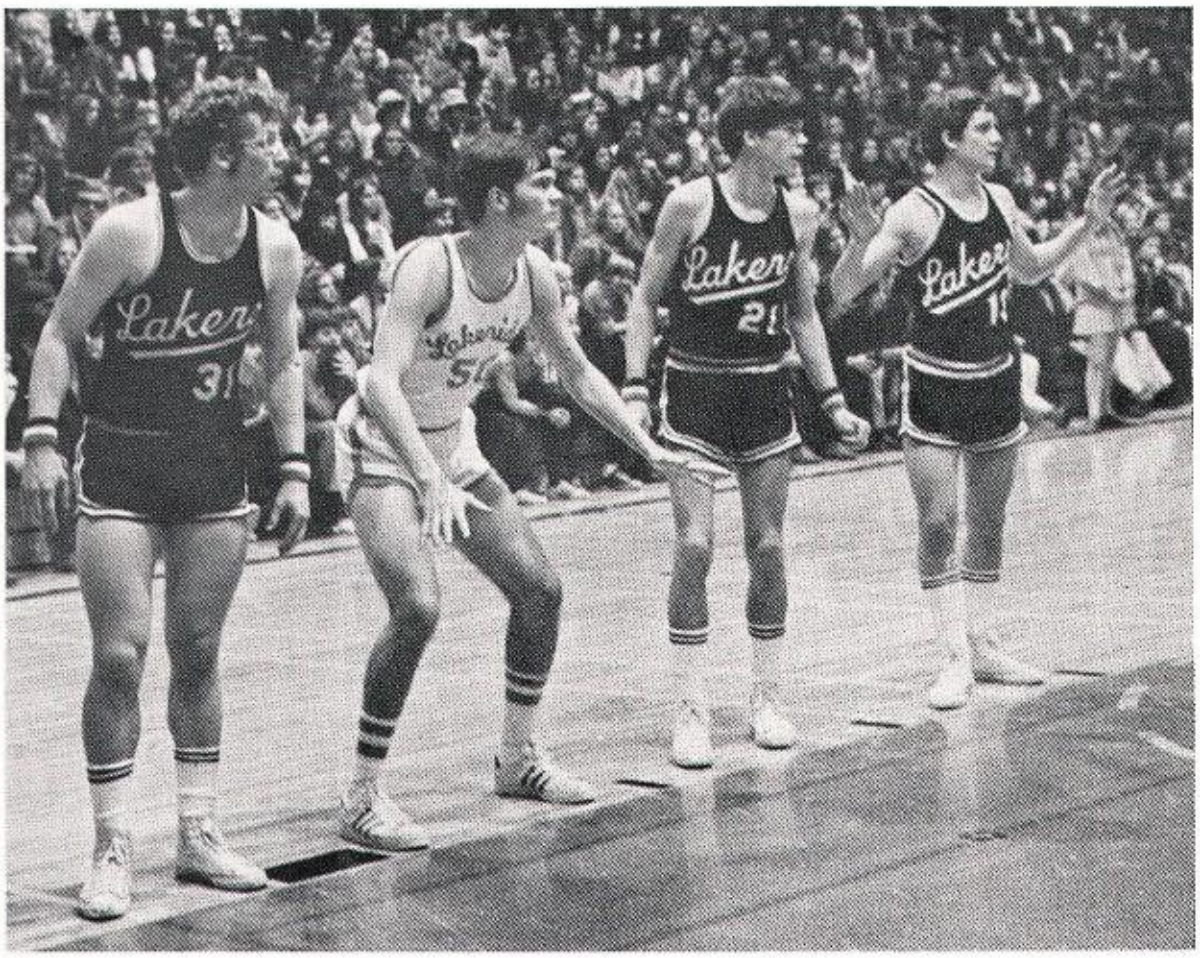


Marshall's Mike Messman (43) appears to be getting a free ride on Keith Neely's back during a pre-season game. Neely shook off a football injury and proved a great help despite his lack of size.



Junior Herb Lafitte drops in a two-pointer against Marshall, but it wasn't enough as the Minutemen came from behind in the last quarter to pull out a non-league win.

Keith Neely, Bruce Pokarney, Tom Hillier, and Barry Schimsher await free throw in closing minutes of Lakeridge game. Off to a slow start, the Lakers roared back to maintain mastery over the Pacers.



BASKETBALL

4-Game Losing Streak Destroys Title Hopes

Hopes for a state tournament berth went down the drain with the seventh loss last year. This year it went the same way. The Lakers were edged in the second overtime by league champion Reynolds to lose all chance to go to state. Earlier that week they lost an overtime game to Centennial.

But the team kept working hard and finished the season with 13 wins against 9 losses.

The Lakers went into the Lakeridge game underdogs. But this fact wouldn't stop them even though they were trying to snap a 4-game losing streak. Lakeridge excited the standing-room-only crowd by jumping to a 16-4 lead, but LO got hot near the end of the quarter and closed the gap. After that the Lakers controlled the game and won easily.

But those four early losses proved too much to overcome.

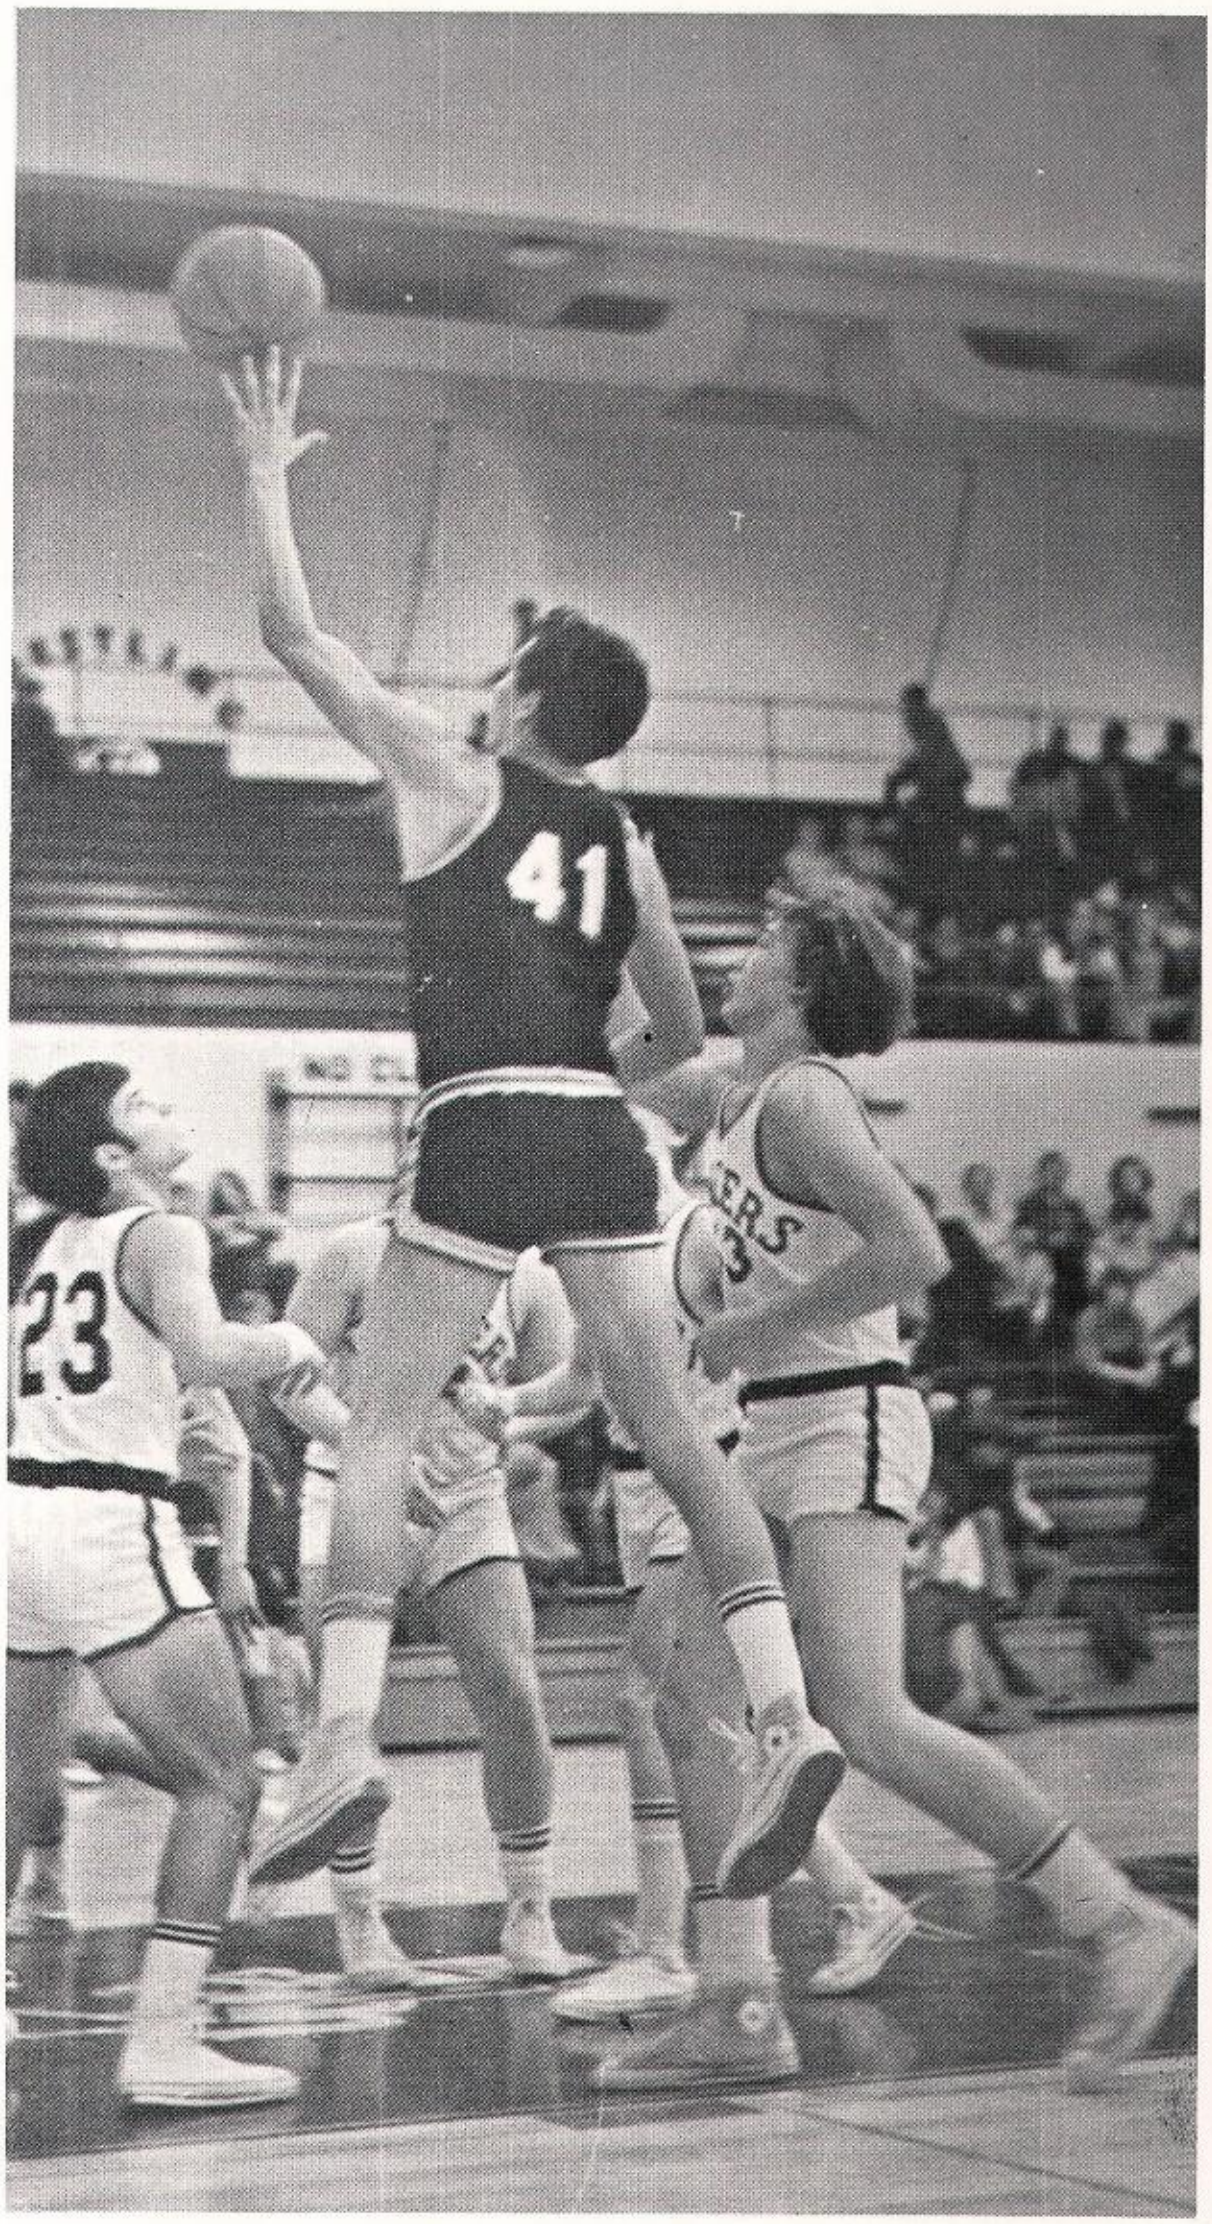
Dahl Leads Team To Winning Season

The Junior Varsity basketball team had a good season winning 15 and only losing 7. The JVs were led by Tony Dahl, who averaged 12.1 points and 7.1 rebounds per game. The team was also helped by newcomer john McClaskey, who was a real hustler on defense.

Sophomore Bruce Dodd was forced to quit early in the year due to mononucleosis. The JVs rarely won or lost a game by more than a few points, which proved to be really exciting to the fans.

There was also a sophomore team led by Casey Skopfil and Todd Stucky. It ended up 7 and 2.



Alternating between the varsity and the junior varsity, Tony Dahl was a constant scoring threat with his soft left-handed shots. Reynolds players stand flatfooted as Dahl pumps in two more. He led JV's in scoring.

BASKETBALL

Both Teams Post Victorious Records

Although neither team had a big man, both teams posted outstanding records, with the Blues going 14-4, and the Whites 13-5.

Dave Bowers led the Navy in scoring with 13.8 points per game as he shot over 50% from the field. He was also the leading rebounder with 131.

Brad Blyth was also in double figures as he averaged 10.3 points per game. Rick Hunt scored 9.4 points per game and was the second best rebounder with 105 retrieves. Doug Luetjen, Kevin Buck, Oly Nordling, Chris Stucky, and Marshall Ellis all started at times.

Steve Howe usually led the Whites in scoring and rebounding. He got frequent help from Ron Sauer, Tim Derrick, Kim Ogle, Rick Schonely, Dave Creighton, and Ron Whittemore.

Forced to play against 6-4 and 6-5 giants from Gresham and The Dalles without a starter over 6-foot, each team worked hard at helping each other out on defense, and patiently working for the good shot on offense.

RALLY

Posters Painted; Lockers Decorated

Although hampered with sickness this year, the winter rally did a fine job of keeping the spirit going. At times fall rally girls had to fill in for an ailing rally member.

Besides making spirit posters, selling ribbons, and decorating lockers on game days, the rally treated the basketball team to a big after-game feast.

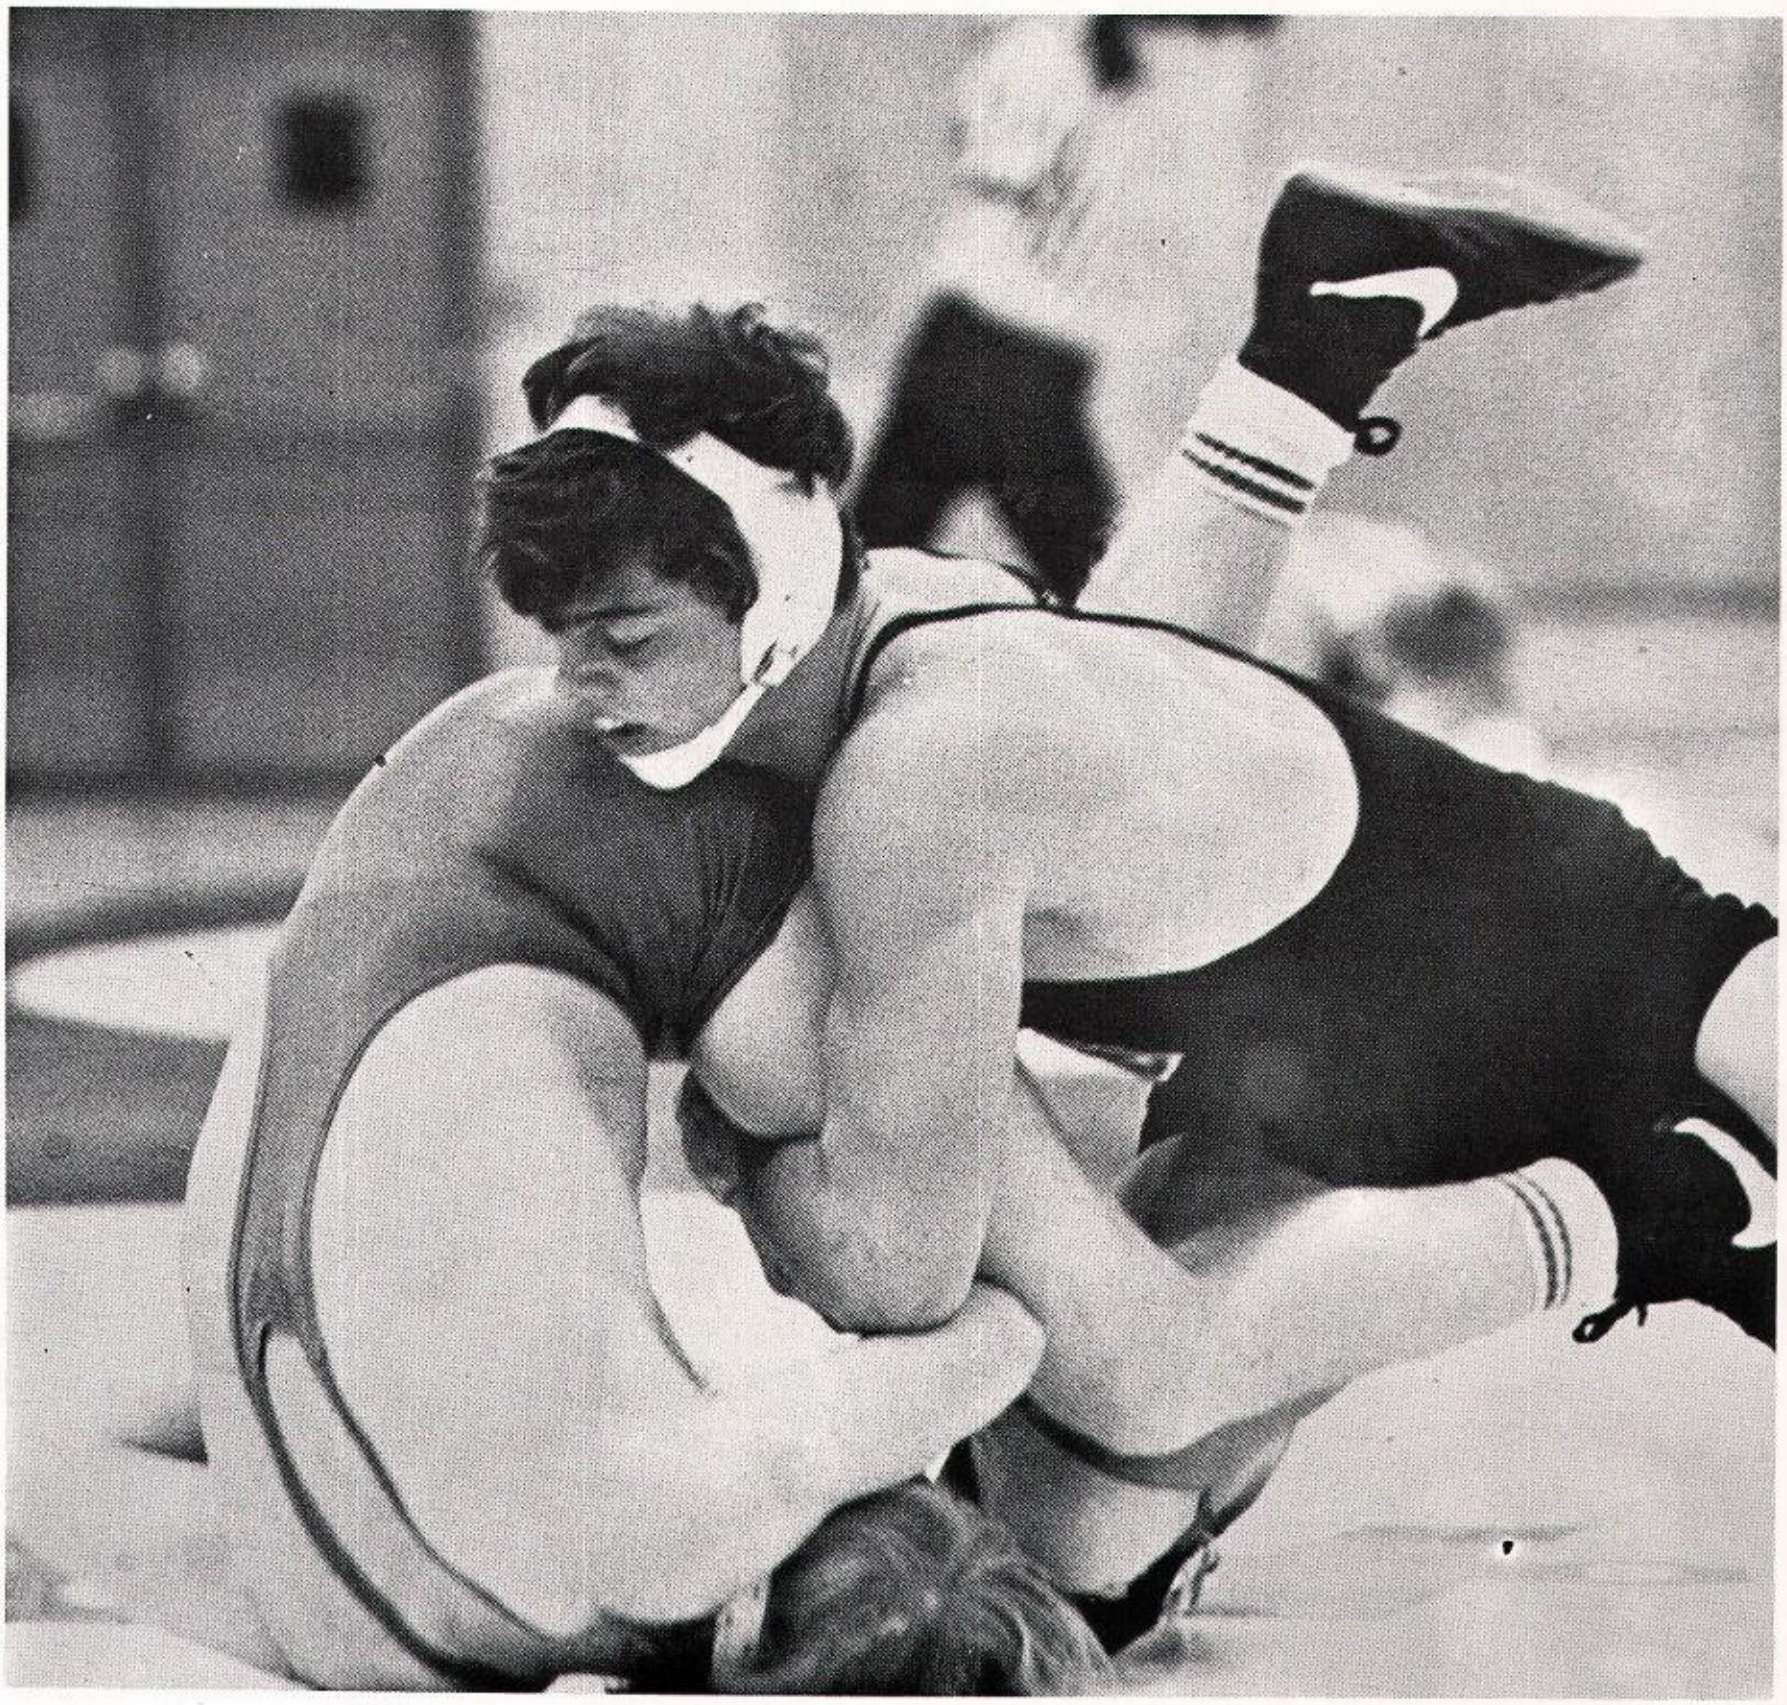
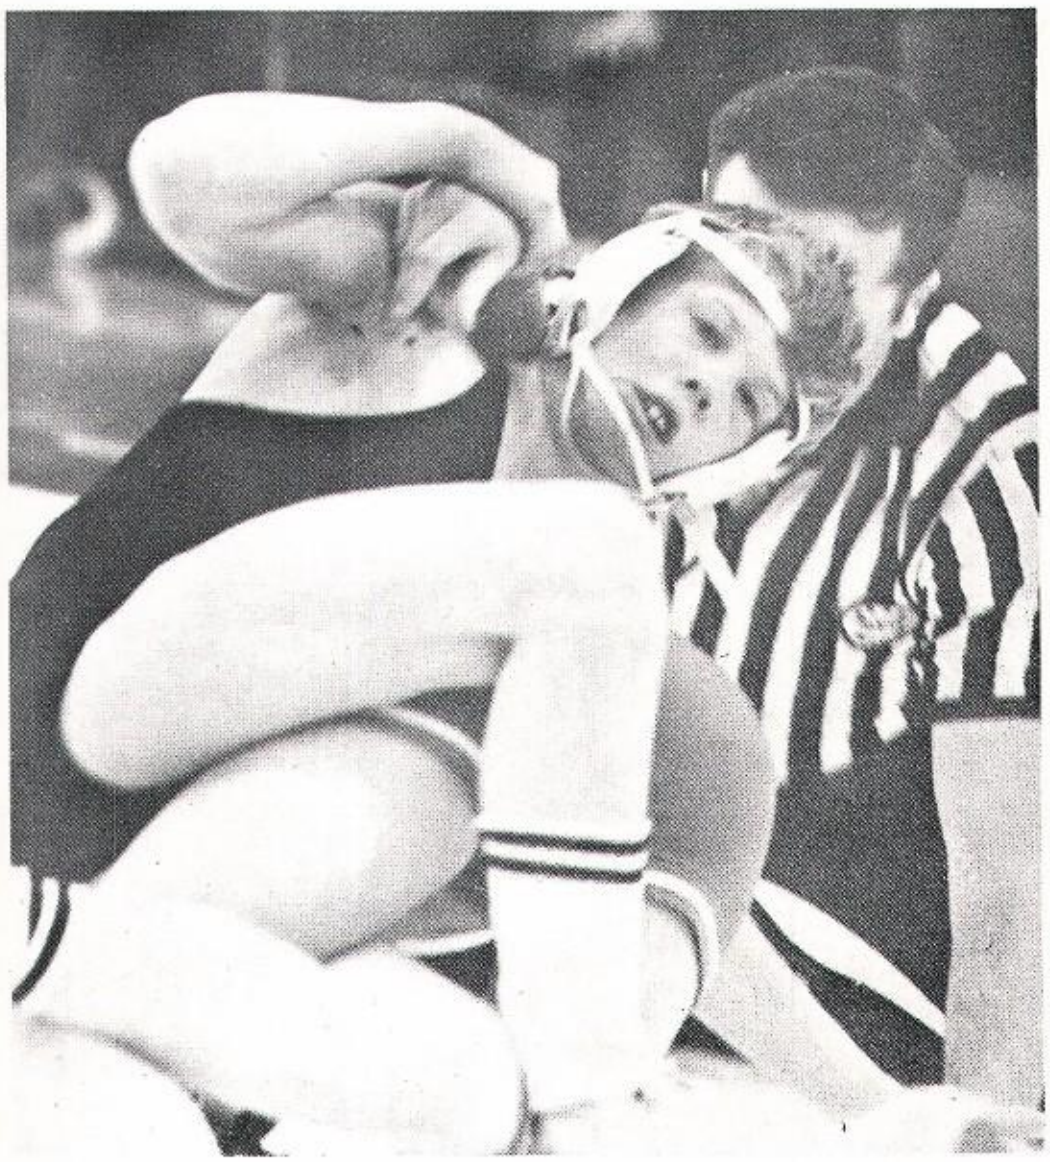
Jay Child



One of three seniors on the team, Captain Jay Child made a strong bid for state before finishing fourth at district. Child employed a stackup to whip Lakeridge's Mike Martin.

Although he only weighed 98 pounds, Sophomore Greg Anderson was deadly with his favorite hold, the guillotine. He finished sixth at district.



WRESTLING

Victory Eludes Weightless Grapplers

Forced to forfeit five weight classes and 25 points a match, the LO team went through the entire season without a dual meet win. But with only two seniors on the team, Coach Lauro Rodriguez is looking ahead to better days.

They have to get better. This year the Lakers even lost their JV coach Ken Becker. Becker was wrestling when he was suffered a broken leg which sidelined him for the rest of the year. Mr. Herb Schunk filled in the rest of the season for Coach Becker.

With many young wrestlers returning and a newly created interest in the sport, the team is eagerly awaiting the 1973 season.

The girls tried hard, but had to settle for sixth place this time.

Boys Surprise Coach With Improvement

Starting the year with an almost totally inexperienced team, Coach Rick Harrington gove constant support to the team to take them to a surprisingly good season. Although not a winning season, it was much better than anyone expected.

Since the sport was returning after five year's absence and it was his first year of coaching, Harrington realistically figured if the boys could score 50 points a meet they would be doing well. They opened with 34 against Tigard, but finished the season with 65 against the Pacers.

The team worked for two main goals--Lakeridge and district. Although they didn't beat Lakeridge, the meet brought out the season's best score. The team brought home a sixth place from the eleven teams competing at district. Among those overcome was Aloha, which had beaten the LO earlier.

Don Crump, in floor exercise man, was the only Laker to make the finasl at district, gaining a seventh among the 44 contestants.

Other top LO finishers at district included Brent Freeman in vault, Grant Wilson in side horse, Bill Hoffee in high bar, Bruce Edward and Chip Laizure on parallel bar and Mark Chin on rings.

For the first time this year, The Dalles High School came down and presented the Lakers with a talent show. The acts ranged from an imitation of Paul Lynde to their stage band. The assembly is part of the new Wilco league policy of exchanging assemblies between member schools.

Fencing instructors also came and showed the finer points of that ancient sport. After the demonstration, Lakers were matched with each other and got to demonstrate their dueling ability.

Again the annual AFS assembly was held. Foreign students attending nearby high schools came and talked about their country and their experiences in the United States.

Dinner, Variety Show Help Raise Funds

The emphasis was on "Fun" this year.

The program got underway with Fun-O-Rama carnival rides Friday afternoon.

Saturday the carnival game booths competed with White Elephants, Botique, Bake Sale and the Cake Walk for the fair goer's attention in the morning. In the afternoon he had a chance to visit the foreign foods booth, pony rides, dunk tank, haunted house featuring TV's Vic Ives of Sinister Cinema, paperback book sale, pillow fights, or trycycle races.

That night there was the roast beef dinner and variety show featuring "Tillie and Her Toilers", the all-girl band. After the drawing for the 10-speed bike, there was the swim pool party.

Sunday the carnival rides continued until 5 pm.

Once again it was the spirit of cooperation among the many participating students, parents, and teachers more than the profits, that made Scarborough such a success.

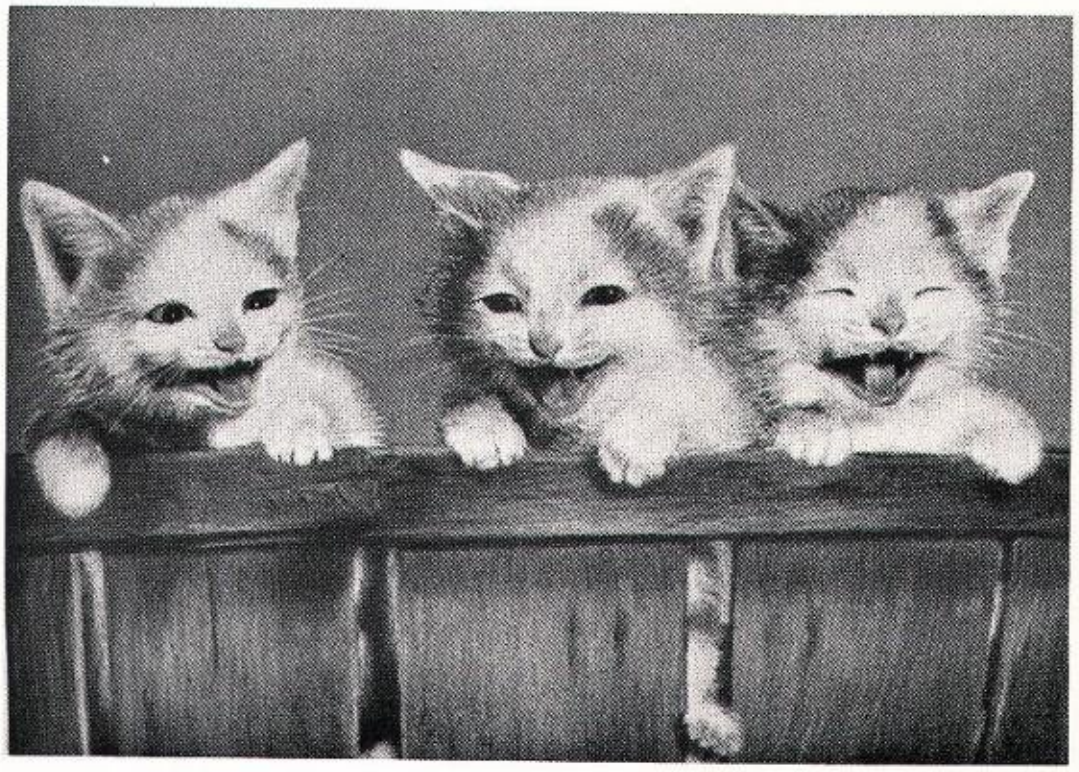
ART SHOW

Decorations Greatly Add to Older Theme

This year's Art Show was carried out with an old-fashioned country theme.

Advanced artists had their own separate displays this time. Mike Roberts' beautiful handcrafted jewelry had a case of its own, and deservedly so.

Ceramics, paintings, charcoal drawings, jewelry, macrame, and wood furnishings were all on display at the Art Show.



Many people commented on the realistic, almost photographic quality of Ellen Ballieu's chalk drawing of the three little kittens.

Soph transfer Donna Kusch contributed this pastel art work.

BASEBALL

Simmons, Yandle Named All-Staters

Coach Pat Byrne's Lakers led the Columbia Division early in the season but fell behind The Dalles with a heart-breaking loss to Lakeridge. They stayed within hailing distance most of the way, but finished two games out of first place.

But that was no disgrace. The Dalles, state runnerups in 1972, went on to win the Wilco championship and the State Championship this spring.

With great pitching from senior southpaw John Yandle and junior righthander Rob Blyth the team easily achieved a winning season. LO had an overall pitching ERA of 1.50, second best among the 14 teams in the league. Team batting, helped along by a new pitching machine, improved tremendously from .176 to .212.

To head up the all stars, John Yandle and his battery mate Greg Simmons were picked for first team Wilco League honors. Junior outfielder Steve Bartelt made second team.

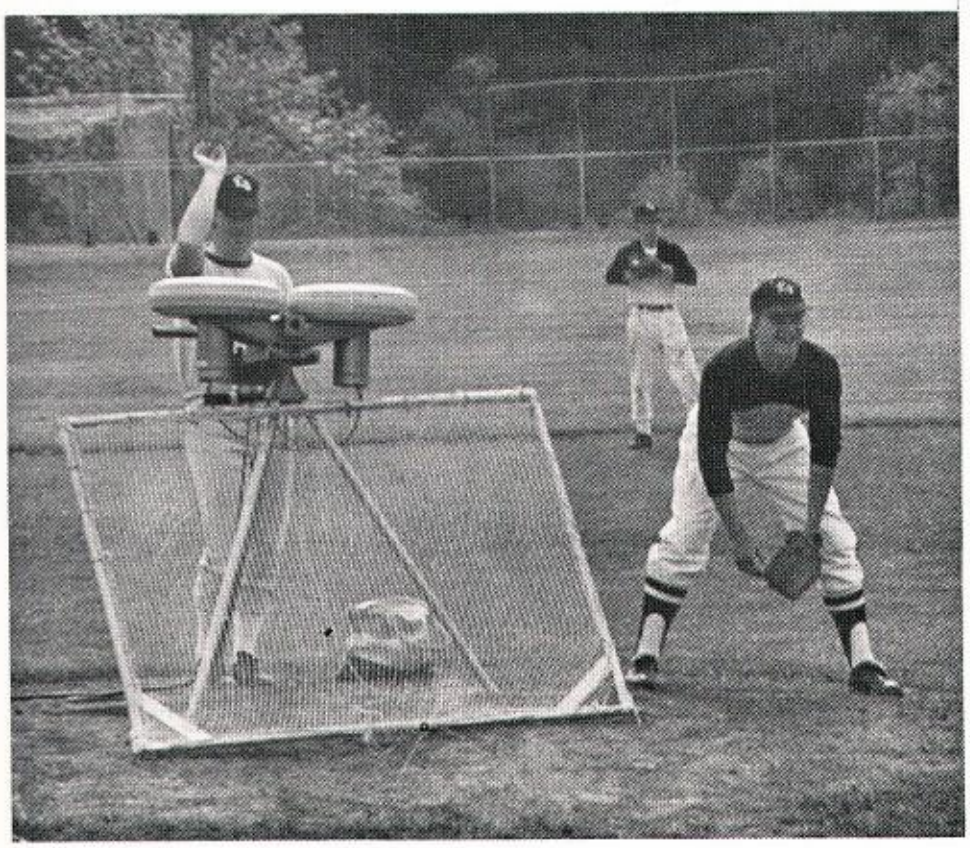
Outfielder, Steve Bartelt, accepts congratulations of teammates after blasting homerun in inter-squad game. The hard-hitting Junior was the top batter for the team this year with his .322 average.

Lakeridge shortstop, Steve Richardson, puts the tag on a sliding Brad Blyth. Blyth singled sharply to right field but was thrown out in a close play when he tried to stretch it into a double. The loss to Lakeridge was the first league setback for LO.



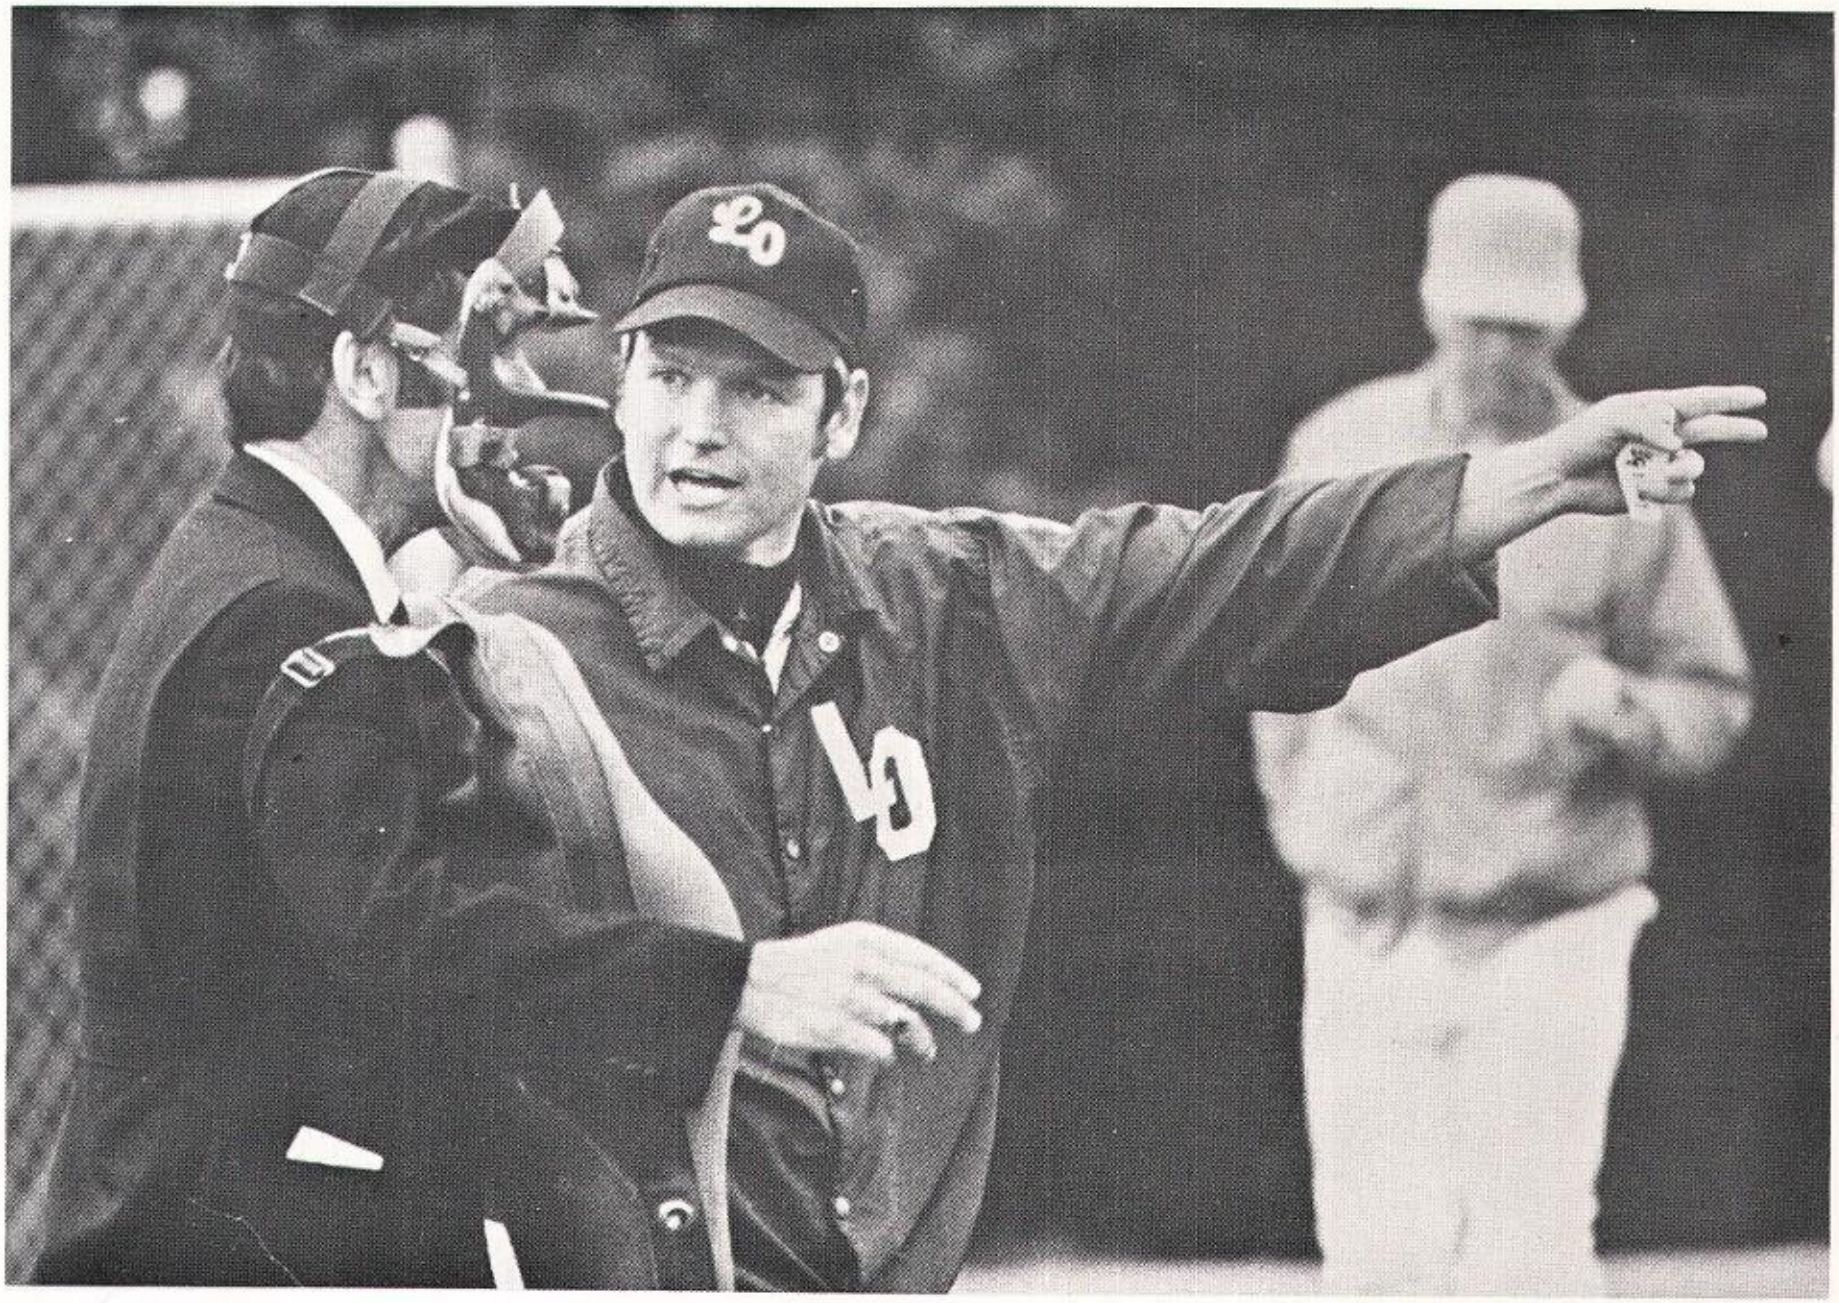
Laker batting averages zoomed upward this year, in part due to a new pitching machine. Coach Pat Byrne signals pitch while Ted Buehner awaits hit.

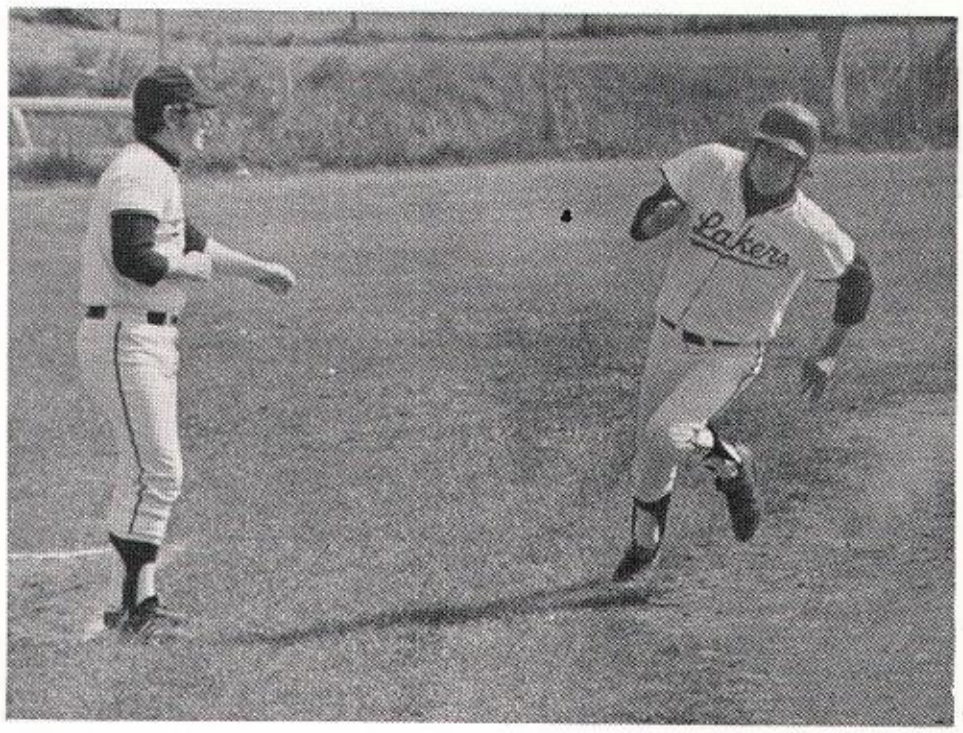
Three juniors, Blyth, Bob Rose, and Scot Raymore won honorable mention.

Yandle, who opened the season by throwing a no-hitter, was drafted by the Kansas City Royals, but declined the professional offer to go to Stanford.

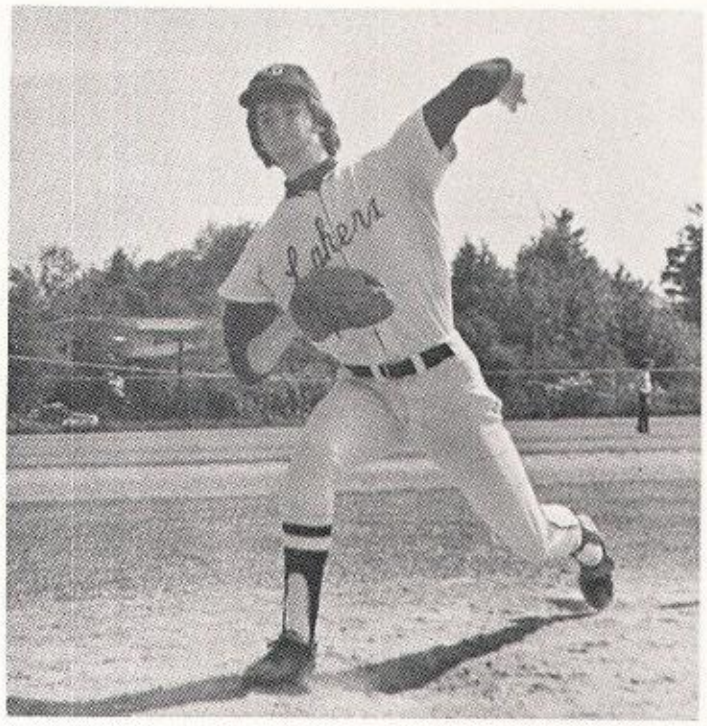
Yandle and Simmons, both All-State choices, were picked on the Metro All-Stars and played against State All-Stars in a 3-game series at The Dalles this summer.

Umpire Bill McCluskey turns a deaf ear to Coach Pat Byrne's pleadings that Laker runner was safe at second. Despite the long argument, the out stood and the Lakers went down to their first Wilco League loss of the year.





Third base coach, Pat Byrne, waves John Yandle in with another run.



Southpaw John Yandle opened the season by throwing a no-hitter and he was just as tough all season long as he made the All-League and All-State team with his .092 earned run average.

Dave Claunch nearly made it home in the first inning but the throw from the left fielder was just in time to nip the sliding Laker. Despite the out LO went on to win.

Strong Hitting Helps Junior Varsity Win

The Junior Varsity team had a fairly successful season. The games lost were usually close games.

Catcher, Doug Simmons, led the team in batting with .490. Another sophomore, Jon Byes, batted .433, and Bryn Torkelson had a slugging average of .729.

Pitching was led by Mack Selberg, who was 5-1, and Craig Dunn, who was 2-0. The only injury to the team was to shortstop, Jim Mendenhall.

The Lakers JV's were guilty of 57 errors and the pitchers gave up 141 walks which might account for some of the defeats the Lakers had.

Lakers Win 7 of 8, Upset Lakeridge, 74-71

After a poor season last year, the thinclads bounced back to win seven of eight meets this year.

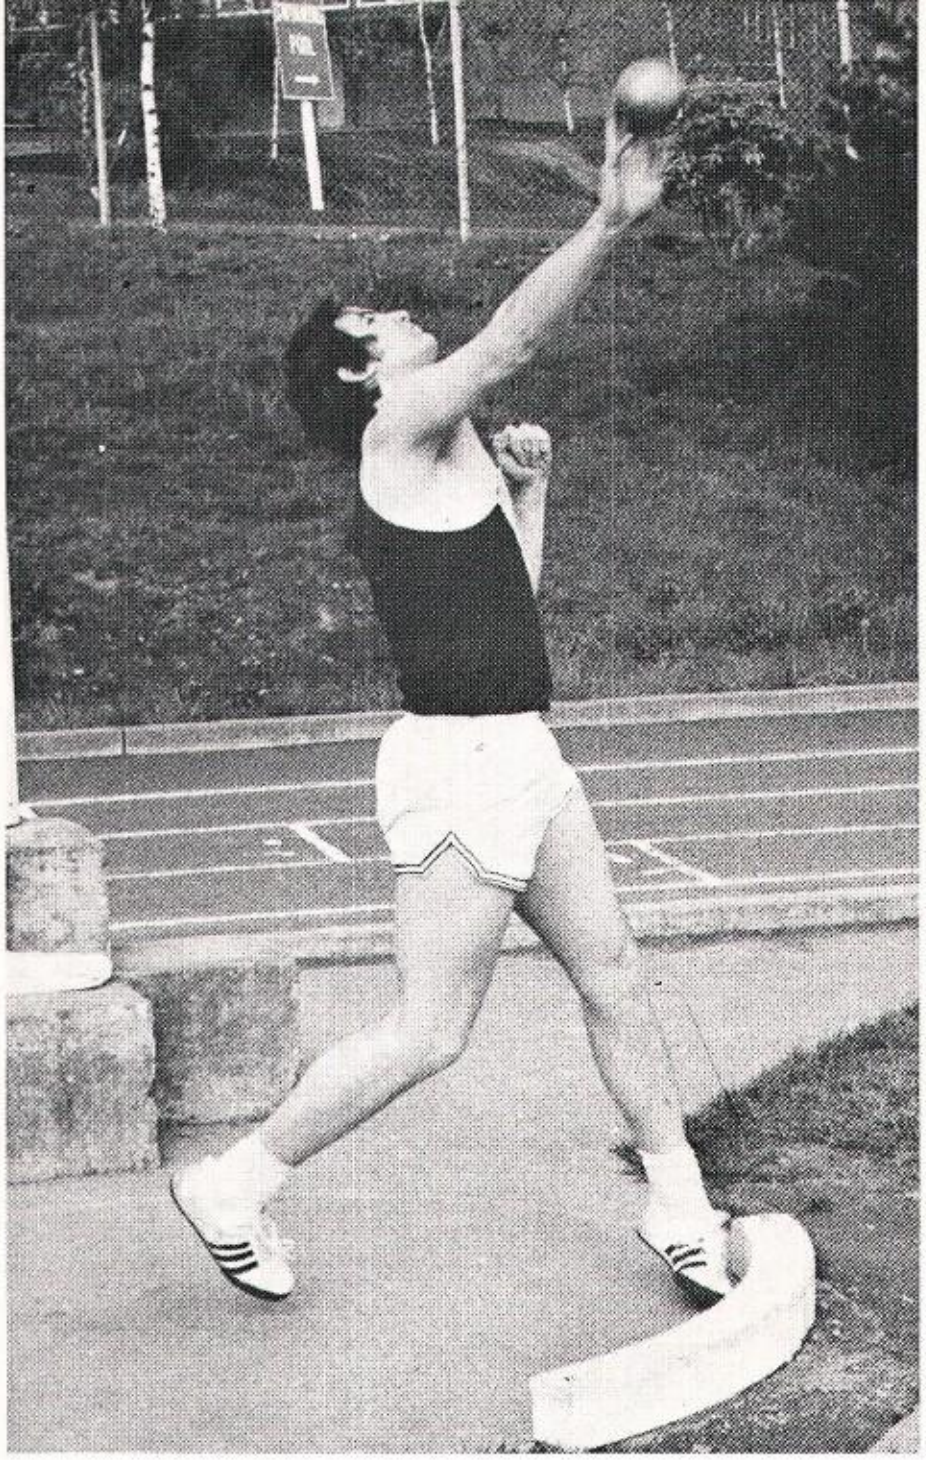
Twice the outcome was not decided until the final event, but in each case, Coach Larry Bowman's gutty Lakers came through. The opening meet with The Dalles was deadlocked until LO won the triple jump. LO trailed highly favored Lakeridge going into the mile relay, but surprised the Pacers and went on to upset them, 74-71.

The mile relay team of Steve Mock, Scott Rupprecht, Ken Guy, and Mark Dodd qualified for state. Although they posted a 3:26.4 there, they had the misfortune of being in one of the fastest heats and were eliminated for finishing third. Lakeridge's relay team ran three seconds slower but made the finals and palced seventh in state.

In a new event this year, Junior Scott Rupprecht sped over the intermediate hurdles in 40.4 to account for a school record there.

Two newcomers to track this year, Kent Howe and Ken Guy, really helped out in the sprints and kept improving their times in nearly every meet.

Senior, Rick Johnson, managed to clear 5-feet 10-inches in the high jump.



(Left) Although he flirted with the 50-foot mark, shotputter, Gerry Edtl, could never reach it in a meet. Still he provided plenty of first place points for the Lakers.

Rick Johnson flies through the air in the triple jump, a new event this spring.

Brian Dunn and Scott Rupprecht engage in some loosening up calisthenics before starting practice.

Senior, John Mitchell, often cleared 12 feet in his specialty, the pole vault.

Besides sprinting, Frosh Larry Butson also tried the javelin.

Freshmen Steve Murphy, Kevin Mullen, and Ken Cushman set a torrid pace on the first lap of the mile race.

Jay Child accounted for most of his points in the discus, but he also added valuable second and third place points in the shot put.

TRACK

Howe, McPhillips Set Frosh Records

Steve Howe set a Freshmen league record in the javelin, tossing the spear 159 feet, 10½ inches.

Another Frosh, Ramsey McPhillips turned in outstanding marks in both the long jump and triple jump. He sailed out past 20 feet in the long jump, and managed 39 feet, 2 inches in the triple jump.

TRACK

Sue Kirschbaum 4th at State in Javelin

Last year, the girls track team was just a spur-of-the-moment thing with just two meets.

This year it was a regular team, and the Lakers went through a full Wilco schedule, winning 4 and losing 4 against schools that had a program before.

Freshman, Sue Kirschbaum, just kept improving and improving in the javelin until she finally threw it 127 feet 3 inches. The throw enabled her to qualify for state where she finished fourth.

Other top performers were Jamie Henderson and Cindy Bassett in the 100, Jamie Morris in the 220, Tonia Christian in the 440, Gail Christian in the 880 and mile, Noray Riggs in the hurdles, Megan Brooke and Kim Bilbin in the high jump, Cindy Brown in the long jump, Ellen Coats in the discus, and Nancy Alexander, Carol Kirschbaum, and Pattie Ferreira along with Cindy Bassett, Jamie Henderson and Jamie Morris in the relays.

Gail Christian was a constant double winner in the half mile and mile.

Only a Freshman, Sue Kirschbaum ranked as one of the top javelin throwers in the state. She finished fourth at state this spring.

Megan Brooke easily clears 4-feet 8-inches for another first despite worried looks of teammates.

TENNIS

Boys' Win Streak Stretched to 24

Although losing its No. 1 tennis player, Doug Browne, this year, the Boys tennis team had another fantastic year. Browne, defending singles champion, moved to the Midwest in the fall.

Exceptional play from No. 1 Dave Wolfard and No. 2 Trent Kamman helped the Lakers win the Wilco League once again. For the second year in a row, Kamman had the misfortune of losing to a teammate in the district finals. Last year he lost to Browne; this year he lost to Wolfard in the all-Lake Oswego finals.

Senior Pete McCormick played No. 3 most of the year. The two doubles teams were usually made up of Steve Russell, Tom Hyde and Tim Luck, Dave Robinson.

The team extended its winning streak to 24 over the past two years under the excellent coaching of Sonny Long.

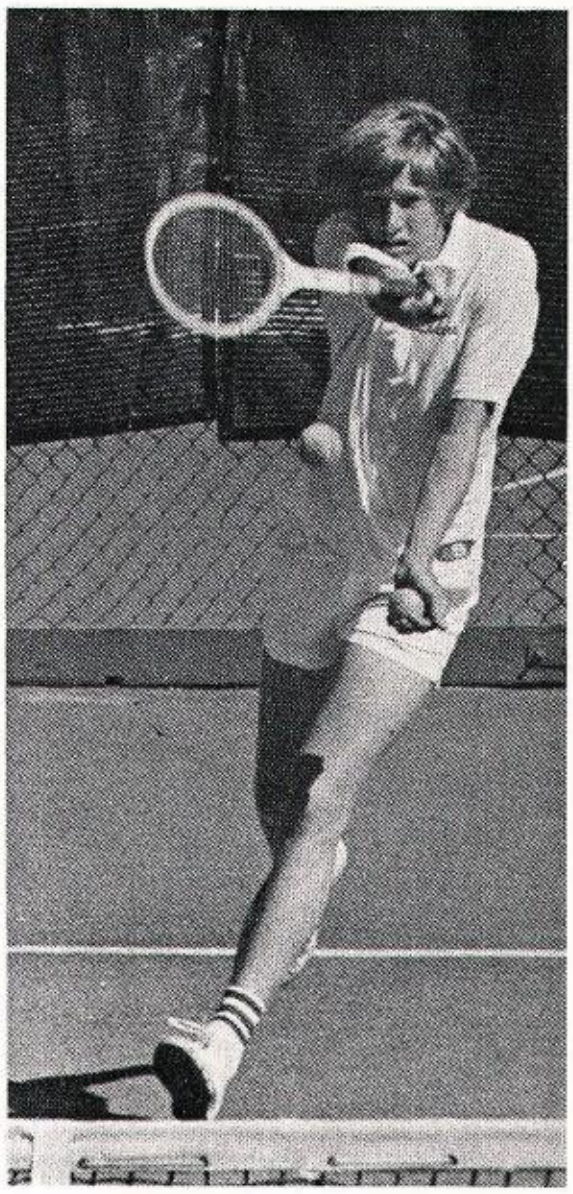
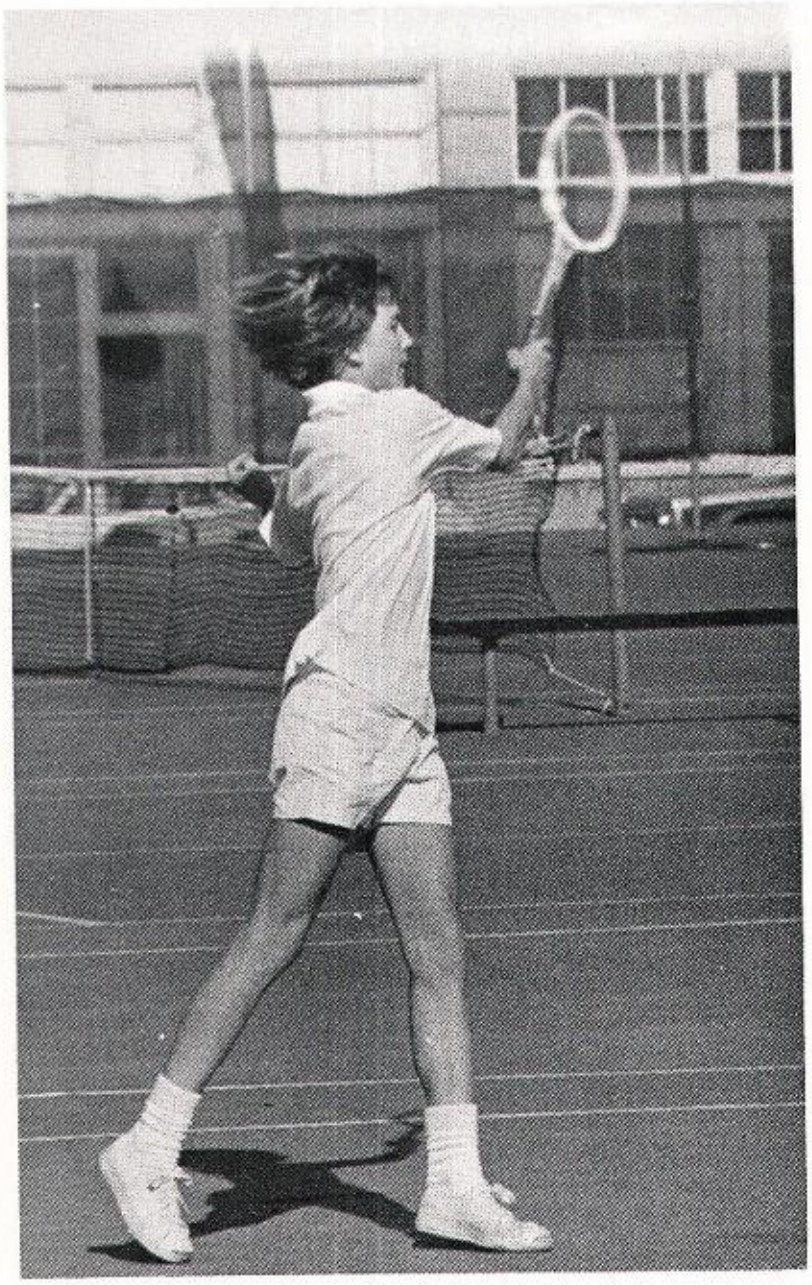
Dave Robinson and Tim Luck exchange ideas during a break in the district tennis tournament in Portland.



By winning most of his matches, No. 3 Pete McCormick helped the Lakers to the Wilco championship and extended the unbeaten string to 24 matches over two years.

For the second year in a row, Trent Kamman finished as district runnerup in singles.



Dave Wolfard downed teammate Trent Kamman for the Wilco League singles crown.

Katie Wilson Leads LO to Good Season

The Girls team compiled a great record this year with a 9-2 Wilco League record and 12-4 in overall competition.

The team was again led by soph Katie Wilson, who placed third in district. A surprising Lecia Olsen was playing a strong No. 2 before she was sidelined for several weeks with an apendectomy. Another junior, Amy Paget, compiled a 15-1 record.

Some fine tennis from Megan O'Connor and Barb Stafford and others as well helped the hustling team to a good season. The team was in the running for the League championship until it lost its final match with The Dalles in an extremely close match.

The Lakers had hoped to present Coach Doris Popple with the Wilco trophy on her 20th year as tennis coach at Lake Oswego.

GOLF

Boys Miss State Title By Just 2 Strokes

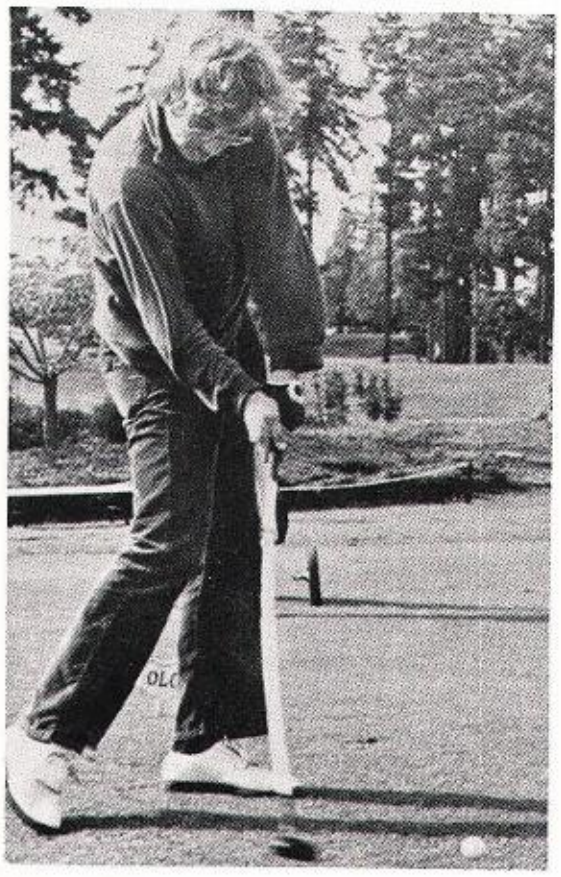
Coach Frank Werneken's Laker Linksters were only two strokes off the pace after the first day of the state golf tournament. They appeared to be in fine shape to repeat as state champions with only Medford ahead of them, 297 to 299.

But, at the end of the second day, they still trailed Medford by two strokes, 607 to 609, and had to settle for the runnerup trophy this time.

Junior, John Ford, appearing in his first state tournament, led the field at the halfway mark with his fine 3-under par round. He got good support from Rod Livesay, who also had a sub-par round, shooting 73. Don Wiens, another newcomer to state tournament competition, shot a 1-over 75 as the Lakers were only 3-over par as a team.

But, scores went up the second day and LO couldn't quite narrow the gap.

LO opened the season with 16 straight wins and remained unbeaten on its home course for the second year in a row. Since the state tourney team consisted of three Juniors and a Sophomore, the team is eagerly looking ahead to 1974.



Don Wiens starts match on No. 1.

Junior, Rod Livesay, captured medalist honors at the district tournament with his even-par round of 74. He helped Lakers bring home runnerup trophy from the state meet a week later.

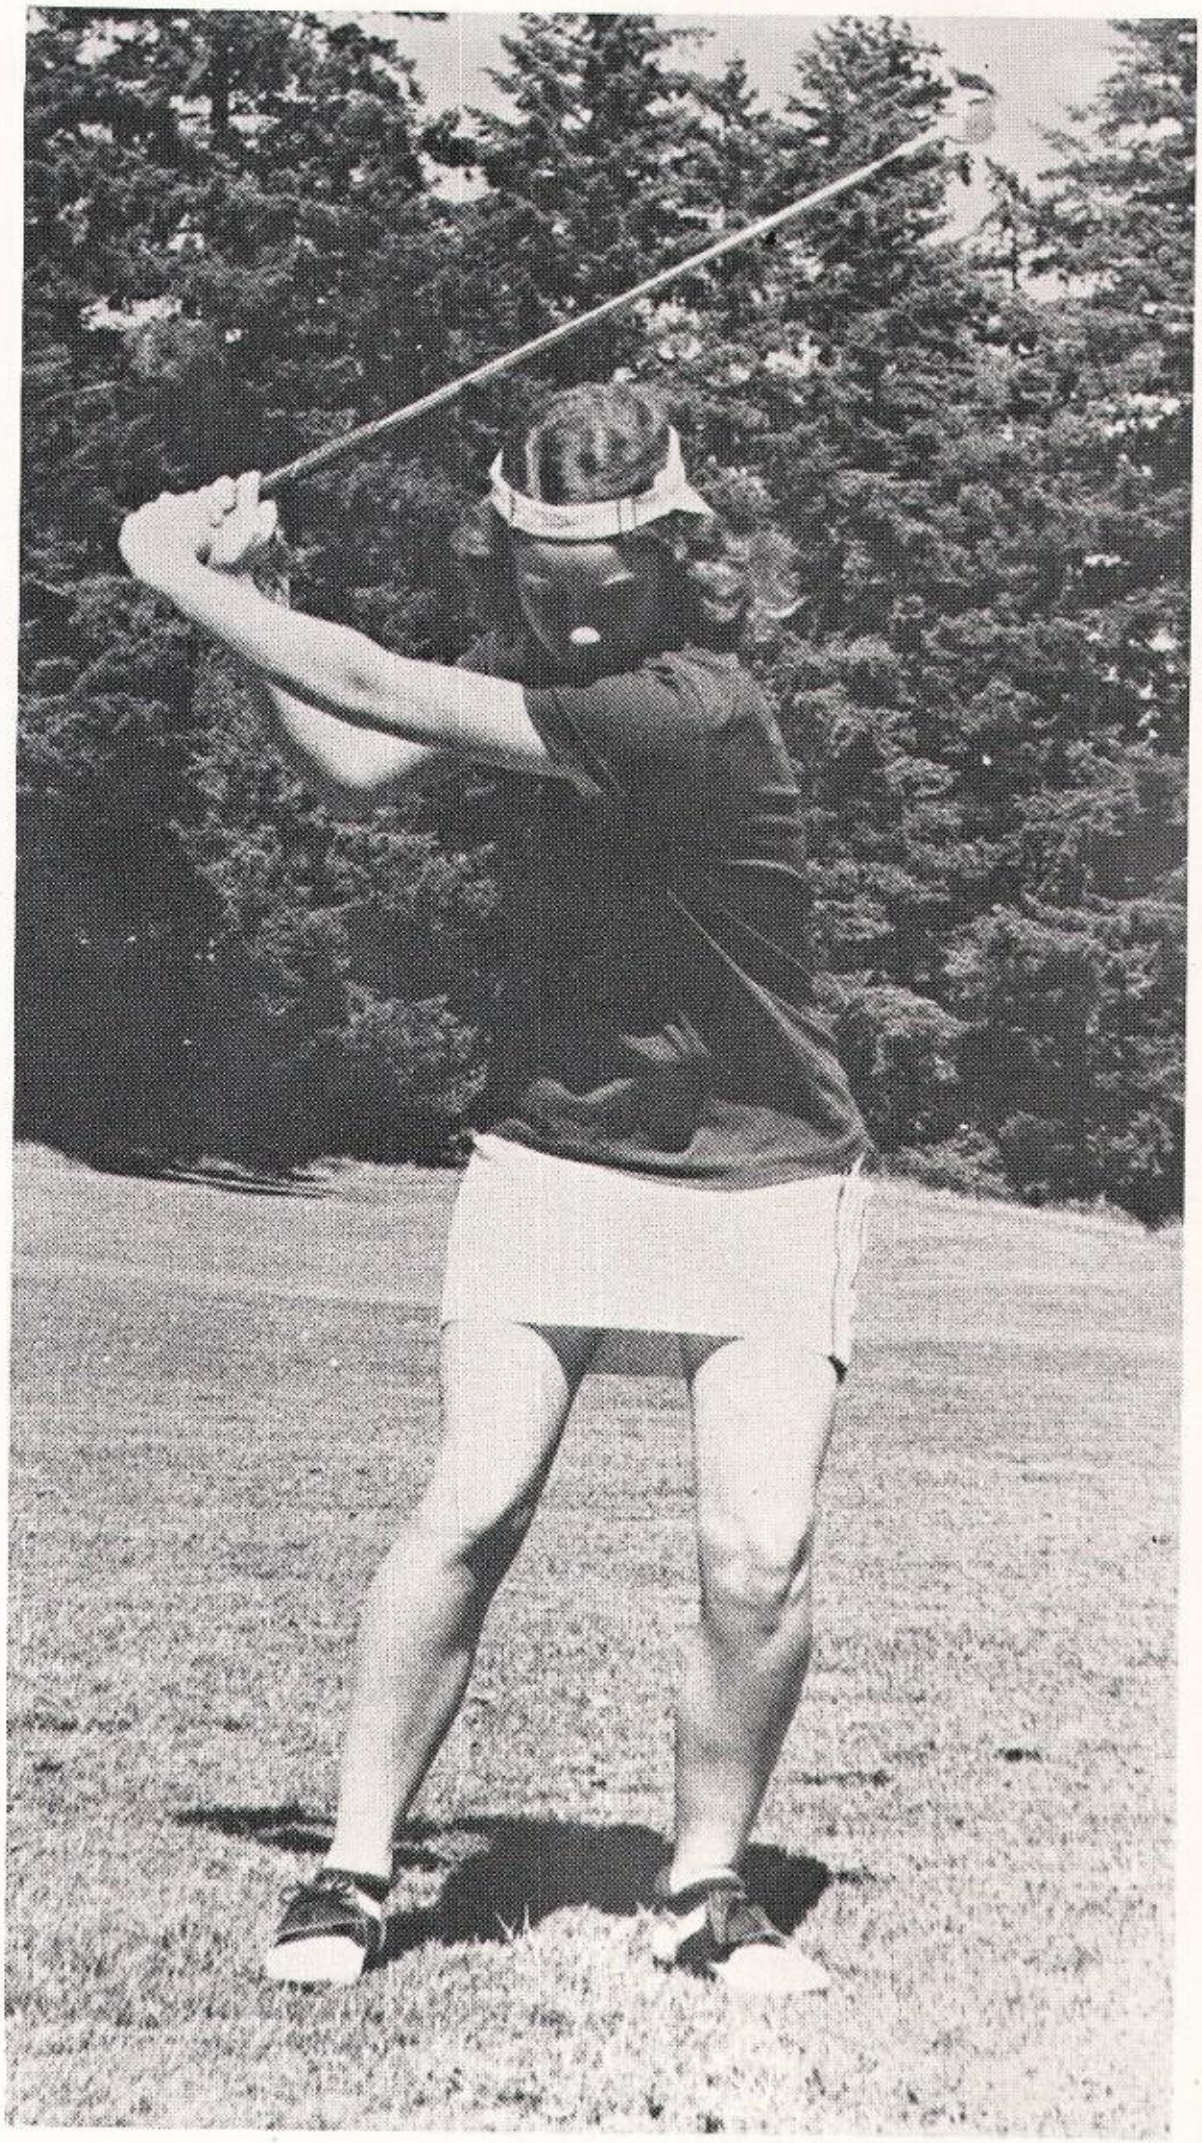
Patty Schram Paces Team To 3rd Crown

Headed by new coach, Robin Buckley, the girls golf team won an unprecedented third straight state championship. This year the girls were underdogs to a highly favored Reynolds team. But LO jumped out to a 10-stroke lead at the halfway mark and held on grimly over the final 9 holes to win with a record 263 score.

Only a bogey on the last hole kept Senior Patty Schram from winning medalist honors with her 79. She has been on all three state championship teams. Sophomore Julie Griswold was on her second team. Gaby Starr was not able to go to state because of a leg injury so Kiki Poth substituted for her and surprised everyone by shooting one of her best rounds, 89. Although Patty graduates, Kiki, Julie and Gaby will all be back next year.

The girls suffered their first loss in two years at the hands of Reynolds. They were also tied by the same undefeated Reynolds team the second time they met.

Gaby Starr shows the putting stroke that won her many matches.



Senior Patty Schram completed her three years in high school by playing on three consecutive state championship teams. Twice she made the All-State team and this year she missed being medalist by just one stroke.

Experience Pays Off On Final Production

With Lisa Olsen as Charity and along with her talented cast, how could the production of Sweet Charity be anything less than a smashing success?

Many members of the cast and crew were old hands at presenting plays and their experience showed.

The whole production of Sweet Charity involved much hard work and self-sacrifice, but the long hours and hard struggle were well worth it for the singing was magnificent and the acting was excellent.

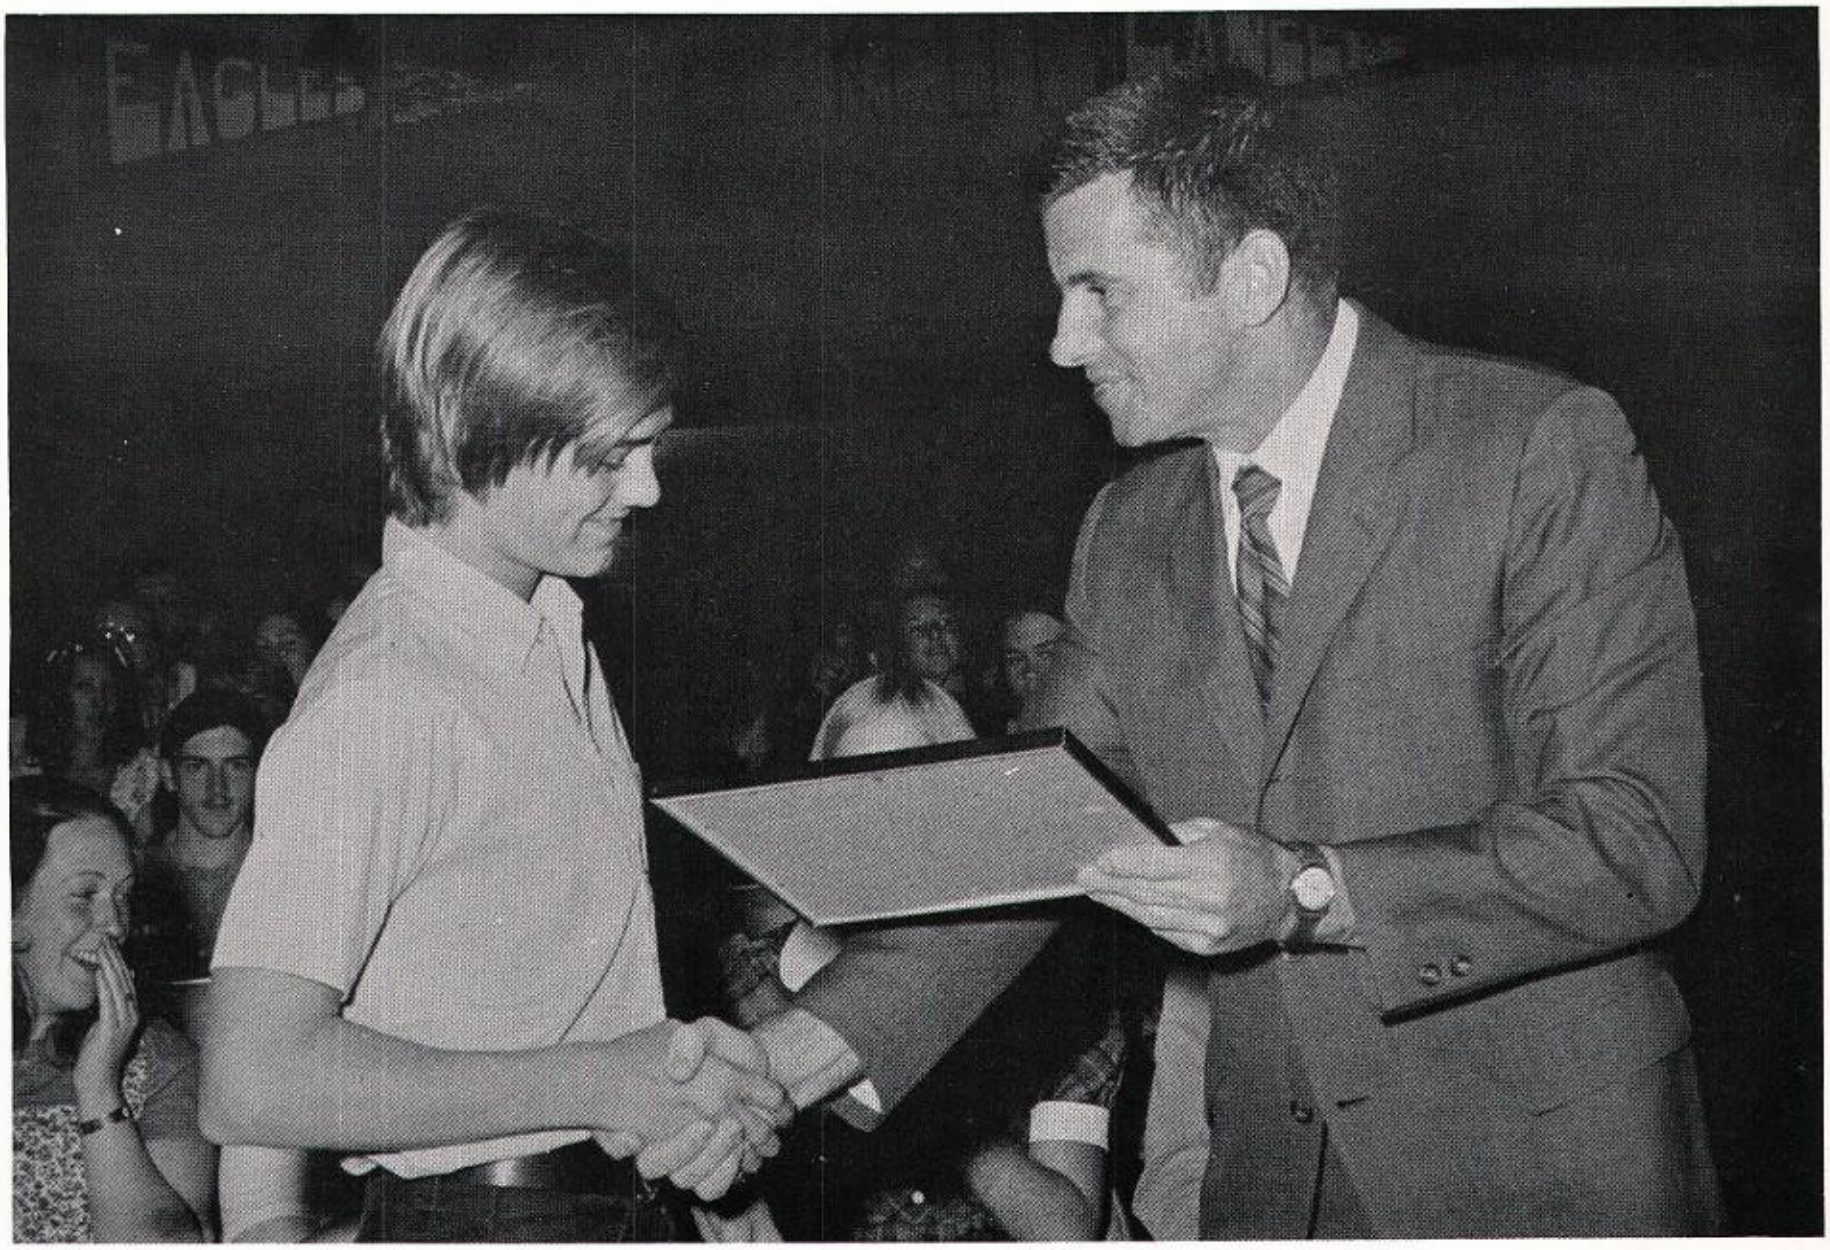
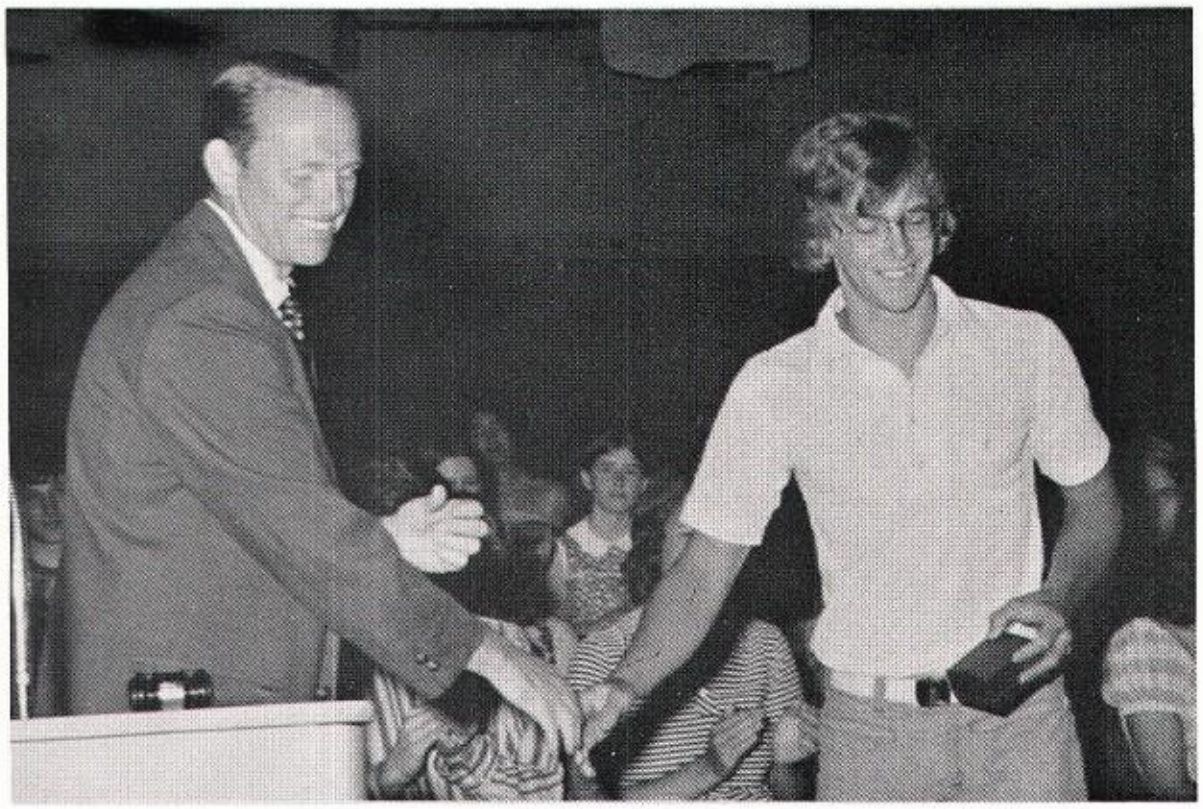
Soph. diver, Todd Ritter, receives his All-American certificate from swim coach, Dick Ruckdeschel. For the second year in a row, Ritter finished third in the state meet. He also set a district record in diving.





Bob Hinkel was congratulated by Mr. Sonny Long, head of the physical education department, after he became the second Laker in history to earn navy blue trunks. To win them, he had to achieve a high performance in eight tests, including 90 sit-ups in two minutes and 100 push-ups.

ASSEMBLIES

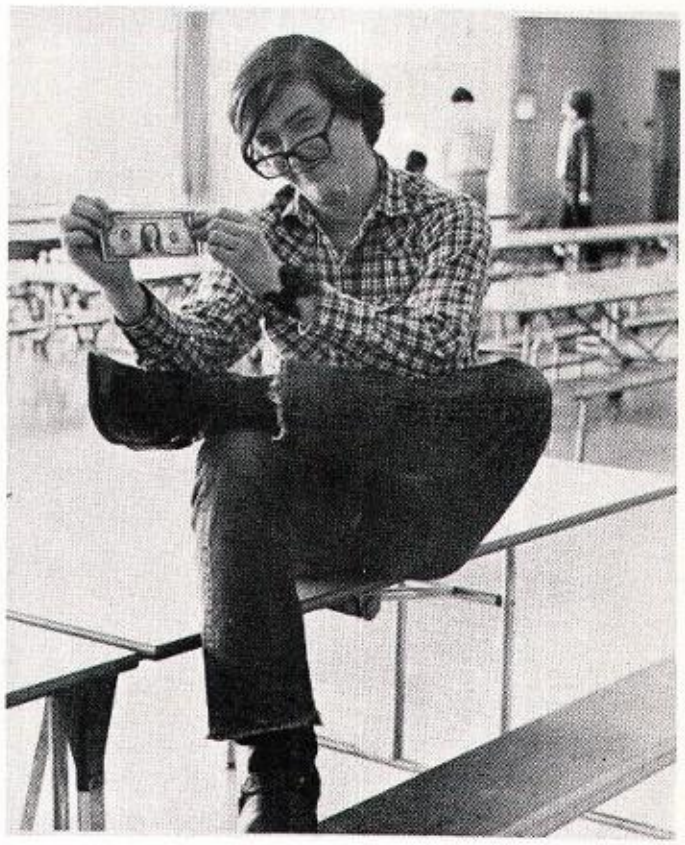
Many Lakers Honored; Tryouts Held

With the usual pep assemblies ending with the winter sports season, most of the spring assemblies dealt with elections, tryouts, and honors.

Special assemblies were held to honor the track, baseball, tennis, and golf teams however.

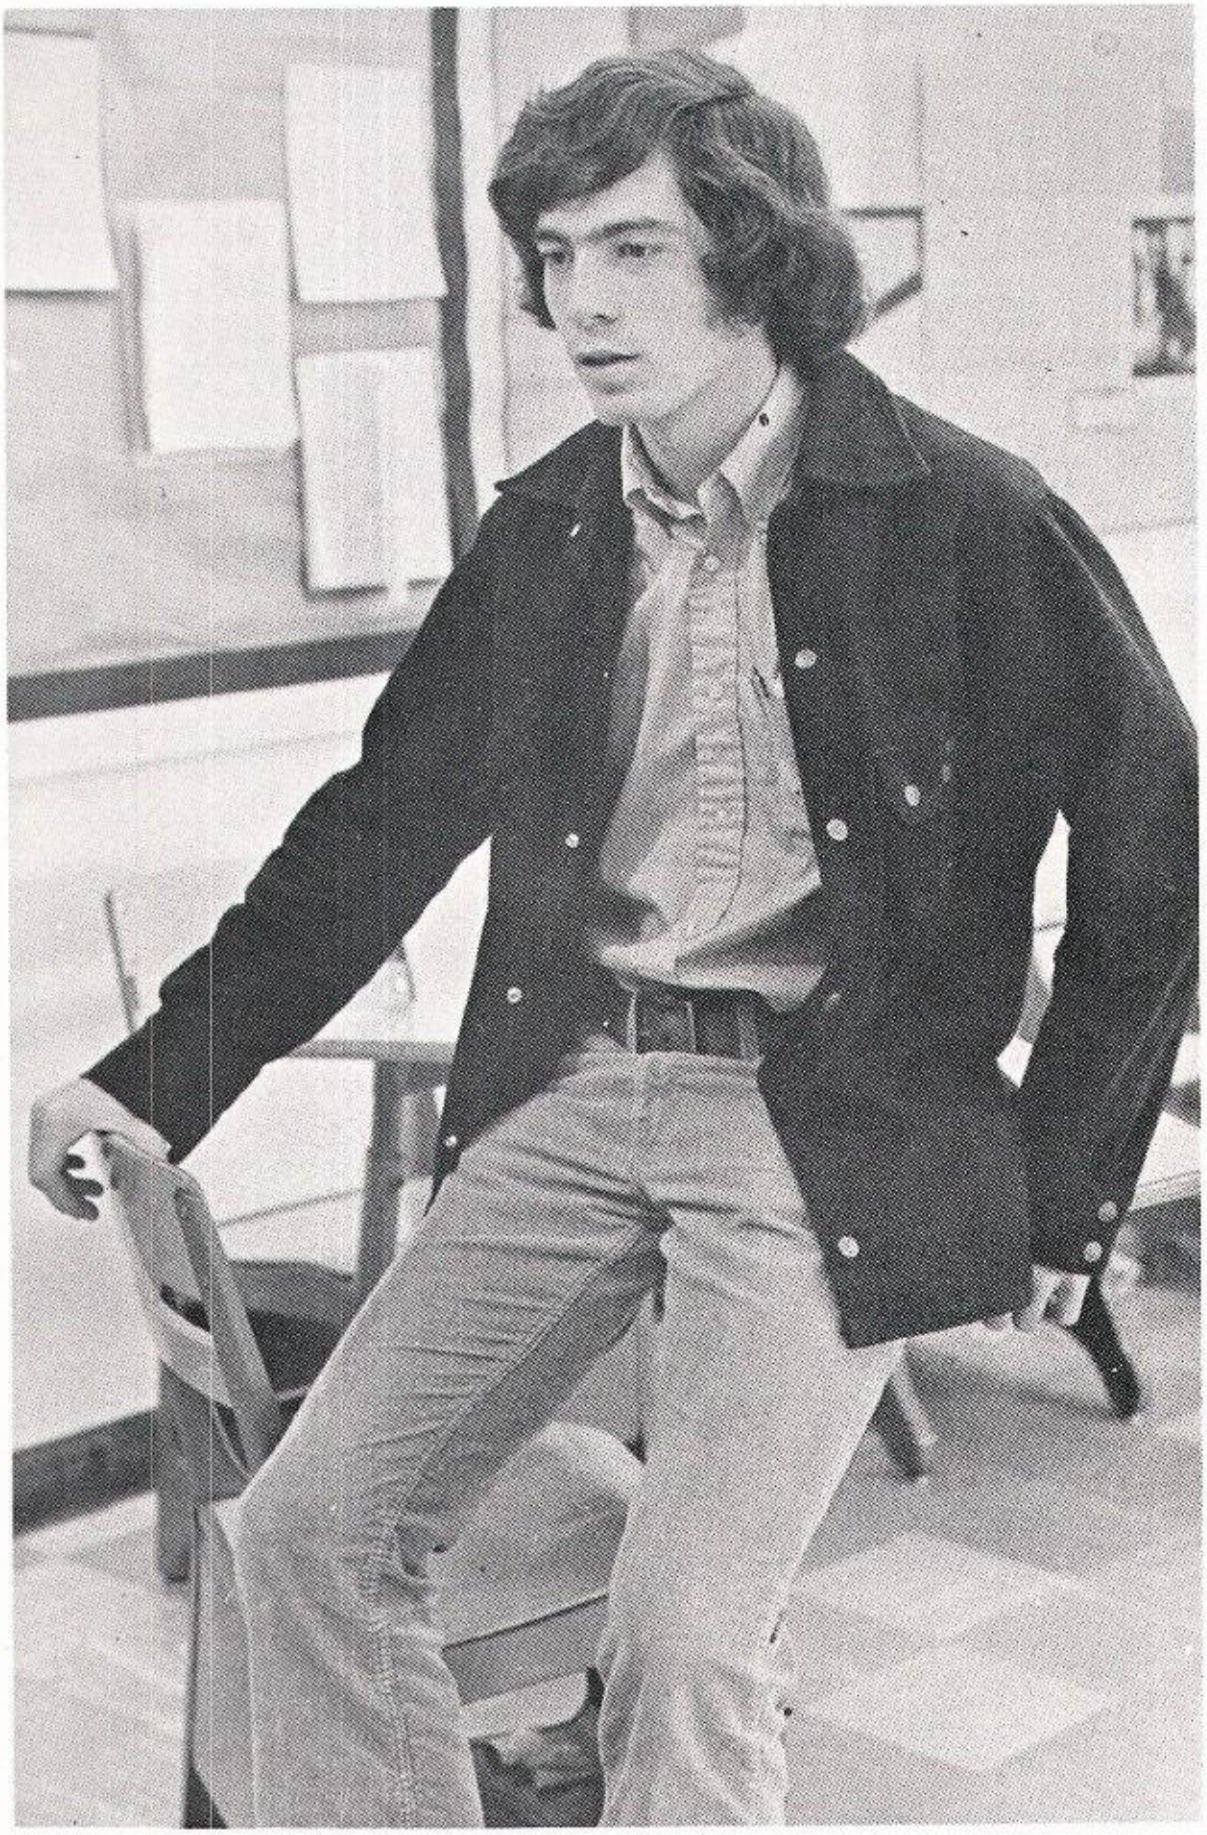
Two of the more important assemblies were the traditional Leadership and Honors assembly.

Bob Hinkel gets sworn in as rally coordinator by retiring Rick Walling.



Elected president of the Senior Class for next year, Doug Kupel will try to demonstrate the same form he used this year as business manager.

Nancy Alexander leads Freshmen girls trying out for Junior Varsity rally. She was elected.



Next year's ASB President, Steve Russell, explains his policy for the coming year.

ELECTIONS

Students Campaign for Various Offices

After getting the required number of signatures on their petitions, students ran for the offices they chose. They made posters and signs to inform students they were running. After the speeches, Steve Russell, Cindy Bassett, Stacie Dodd, Lori Pajunen, Bob Hinkle, Kiki Poth, and Sam Hutchison were elected.

Rally had the same ordeal, but they didn't have to make any speeches or signs. They only had to perform in front of fellow classmates impressively enough to be chosen. Pilettes were picked by a panel of teachers.

Freshman, Lisa Reinders, tried out and made JV rally.

HONORS

Seniors Rewarded For Many Feats

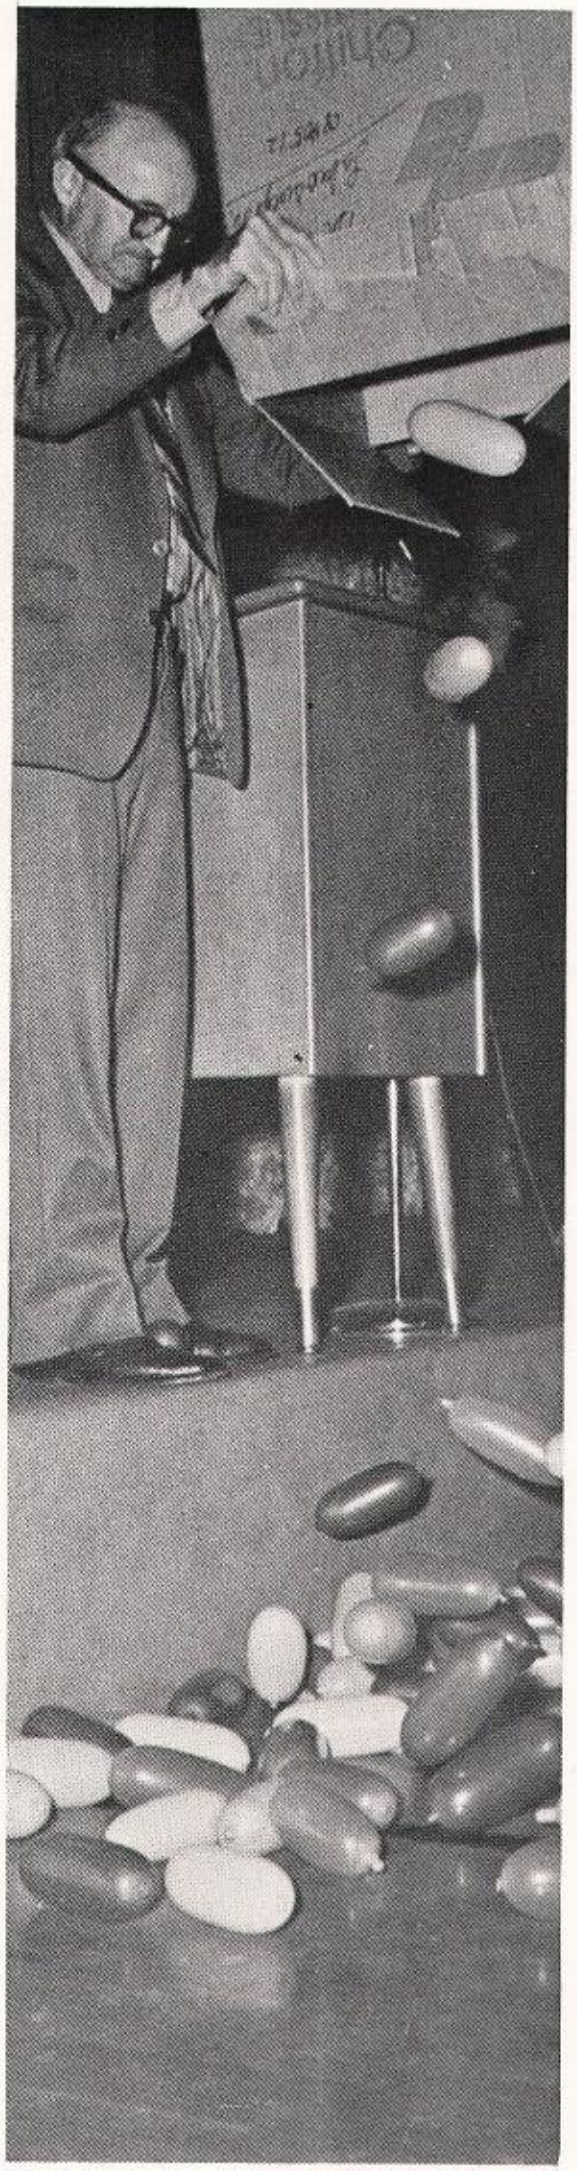
"What Will the New Day Bring?" was the theme of the seniors' last assembly together. Awards, congratulations, and honors were presented to the anxious graduates.

Recipient of the Alene Nelson Memorial award was Nancy Field for her outstanding work in Home Economics. Nancy was also voted "best looking" in the Class of '73.

Three seniors received acclaim for placing so high in a national foreign language test. They were Kim Rowse with a score of 90, Rick Johnson with a 92, and Margaret Garner with a 102.The national average for the test was 46.

Adding a light touch to the ceremonies with the Hall of Fame were Debbie Arnold and Jeff Shearer. Lisa Olsen and Jeff Grant read the Class Will.

Jim Neill presented the class gift, a ball and chain.



Carey Stenberg received the coveted Gary Ragen plaque for Lakerism from Mr. Jess Rhodes, director of student activities.

PROM

Better Atmosphere Adds to Enjoyment

For years students have faced an almost impossible task of transforming the cafeteria into the site of the annual Junior-Senior Prom. This year Lakers avoided the problem by using a ballroom at nearby Portland Community College.

The better location certainly added to the atmosphere of the June dance, and the United Attractions provided just the right music for the occasion.

GRADUATION

Outdoor Ceremony Held for 1st Time

On a warm Tuesday evening, the football field was full of chairs for LO's first outdoor graduation ceremonies. Parents had already been ushered to their places in the grandstand and given programs by Omega members.

This year's theme was, "Look Out World; Here We Come". The Concert band played the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" as the Seniors entered the stadium. Senior Class President, Jim Neill, gave a short welcoming speech.

Kim Rowse and Janelle Pinkney divided the topic, "Ours is the Future", while Doug Forsyth spoke of "Tomorrow". Probably the highlight for the graduating Seniors was the speech on "Success" by Mr. Jess Rhodes, a man who had put a soft spot in their hearts for the past three years.

Seniors were called up for their last words of goodbye from Dr. Norman Riggs and their diplomas were handed out by Dr. Thomas Cottle, Chairman Lake Oswego Board of Directors, and Dr. Kent Myers, Assistant Superintendent.

The Concert Choir lcosed out the hour-long program with "Old Irish Blessing" and the once-Seniors, now graduates, filed out of the stadium. "Look Out World; Here They Come."

Graduation was not that serious for Jim Shaw, Jeff Shearer, Marilyn Shelley, and Debbie Shields.

Something new, a Senior reception in the courtyard, was very successful this year. Mrs. Carol Kilmer, Patti Krug, Marla Knauss, and Laurie Egland helped serve Seniors and faculty members prior to graduation.

CLUBS

MIDSHIPMEN: President, Jay Child, described the annual Midshipmen dance as "not quite as successful as before." But the lettermen had many other activities to make up for it. They raised money by selling programs during football games. Later in the year they sold stationery as a fund-raising activity.

The Midshipmen visited Dornbecker hospital and spent some of their funds on presents for the children they visited there. They participated in the AFS money-making basketball game against the faculty. Of course, the Midshipmen held ropes at basketball games and picked up books during locker checks.

At the end of the year they donated their remaining money to remodel the weight room.

WILDERNESS SPORTS CLUB: Designed to bring its members closer to the outside, the new club was mainly for hiking and climbing enthusiasts. President, Gerry Edtl, and Vice-President, Jeff Brown, were ecstatic when 300 Lakers signed up as seriously interested on club day. Despite the fact that this was of the few non-dues paying clubs, as the year went on, membership fell to about 20. This decline was accounted for in part because of the competition of skiing and the fact that the best season for outdoor life is summer when school is not in session.

During the year the club had a speaker from Glacier's Edge ski shop talk about climbing, and the club took a couple of hikes up the Columbia Gorge.

SKI CLUB: With Steve Roth as President, the skiers met about a dozen times during the year with nearly 40 members at each meeting. The ski sale was, as usual, the money-making activity for the club. Ski buses up to Mt. Hood Meadows were happening on the weekends during the winter months. One could buy one single trip up to the slopes or one could buy a package deal for the entire season. The package deal even included lessons.

Club officers, along with faculty advisor, Mr. John Davis, had many ideas for making money with the thought of the possibility of an overnight ski trip, but they just didn't seem to develop.

TRI-L: Started last year by Andrea Canulette, the club composed of girls earning their JV or Varsity letters began its first full year of existence. Besides sponsoring the Christmas dance, Tri-L also visited Dornbecker hospital with the Midshipmen, and helped out at Christie School.

They played the women faculty as part of the AFS game, and held several doughnut sales.

Officers were Sue Pyle, President; Renee Taylor, Vice-President; and Lisa Child, Secretary-Treasurer.

ECOTACTICS: Members concentrated on preserving the environment. Glass was broken and cans were smashed as members prepared the materials for manufacturing companies in Portland where the materials are re-used. After losing their recycling station in the Junior parking lot to the winds, members built a new station behind the school and many concerned citizens now bring their glass and cans there.

Steve Morgan served as President. Mr. Ken Becker continued to advise.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS LEAGUE: IRL sponsored speakers and films for the school in an effort to stimulate discussions about the affairs of the world and how the United States reacts and relates to them.

Members were constantly going to hear speakers, discussing their views, and debating subjects relevant to the political and social actions taking place today.

Andrea Maier was President with Rob Jacobs as Vice-President, and Janelle Pinkney was Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. Larry Craggs advised.

OMEGA HONOR SOCIETY: Kim Rowse served as President for the club, formed to create enthusiasm for scholarship and to promote leadership. As part of Scarborough Fair, Omega members sponsored a used book sale. Members also ushered at graduation, besides holding an impressive induction ceremony.

Margaret Garner was Vice-President, Janelle Pinkney Secretary, and Greg Kent Treasurer. Mr. Frank Werneken and Mr. John Williams advised.

CLUBS

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE: The club was constantly striving to improve understanding among the peoples of the world. Its purpose was best carried out during AFS week when visiting AFS students talked, sang, and danced before the student body during the assembly and then stayed on to tell first-hand about their country and their impression of the U.S.

Janet Johnson was President, Louise Underdahl Vice-President, Amy Tassock Treasurer, Nancy Stidham Secretary. Mrs. Brenda Deckers and Mr. Mike Goodrich were advisors.

COMMITTEES

COMMUNITY SERVICE: This new committee tried to serve the community in any way it saw fit. Besides a blood drive, it also raised money through bake sales for the South Shore School for retarded children. Barb Bailey and Linda Howe were co-chairmen.

SOCIAL: Co-chairmen Janelle Pinkney and Gail Ehman helped plan, organize, and carry out all social events of the school.

INTRAMURALS: Kim Rowse was constantly seeking people to play in the various programs offered - tennis, volleyball, and ping pong.

ASSEMBLY: Co-chairmen Debbi Arnold and Jeff Grant were busy helping plan good and interesting assemblies. Several rock and folk groups appeared and KISN presented "The History of Rock and Roll", complete with movies and posters.

TRAFFIC: Stan Oyama and Mark Dodd worked hard to promote safe driving technique and to solve the ever-present parking problem.

FROSH

It seemed like they had just gotten to school and were still learning their way around when the Frosh were called on to participate in Homecoming, their first function as a class.

At Christmas time they were busy selling candles and holders as a project to raise some badly needed money.

Then, in spring came their first May Fete. In keeping with the theme, "Place of Dreams", the Frosh presented "I Am". Ann Heath and Kim Knox served as co-chairmen while Carol Gifford handled the choreography.

FROSH

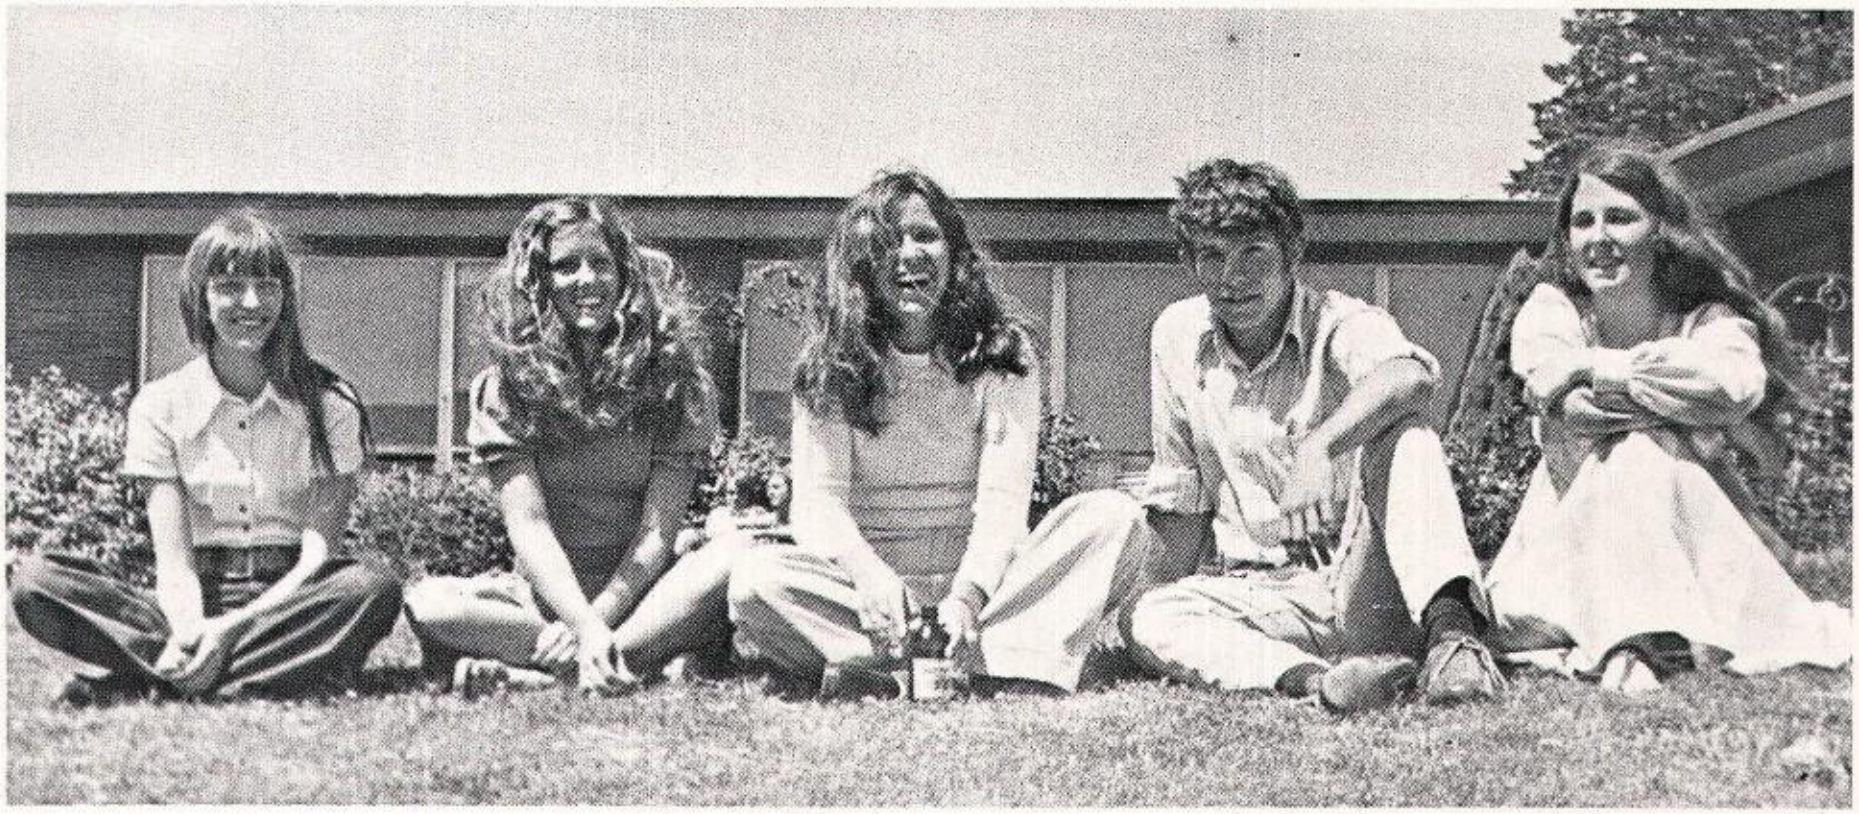
The Sophs were all ready for Homecoming this time, with a full year's experience behind them.

And to promote goodwill, they cosponsored a potluck dinner with Lakeridge.

Amy Tassock served as chairman for the May Fete skit, "An Old Man Has Dreams". Susan Arnold, Doug Barnard, Laurie Gee, Melissa Keefe, Triss Merkley, Charles Ransom, Ellie Riker, Sharon Lunch, and Jill Sorenson all worked on the script.

Group chairmen were Julie Wiltshire, props; Margaret Wattman, music; Katie Bassett, children; Kim Mercep and Mitch Lomax, prom dancers; Polly Marmaduke, wedding guests; and Kathy Smail, anniversary guests.

Bill Neill, Martin Finch, Marge Schenk, Tom Wendel, Scott Neiman, and Kevin Lindsey starred in the production.



SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS: Debbie Pearson, Secretary; Barb Stafford, Vice-President; Katie Wilson, Social-Coordinator; Tom Wendel, President; and Nancy Stidham, Treasurer.

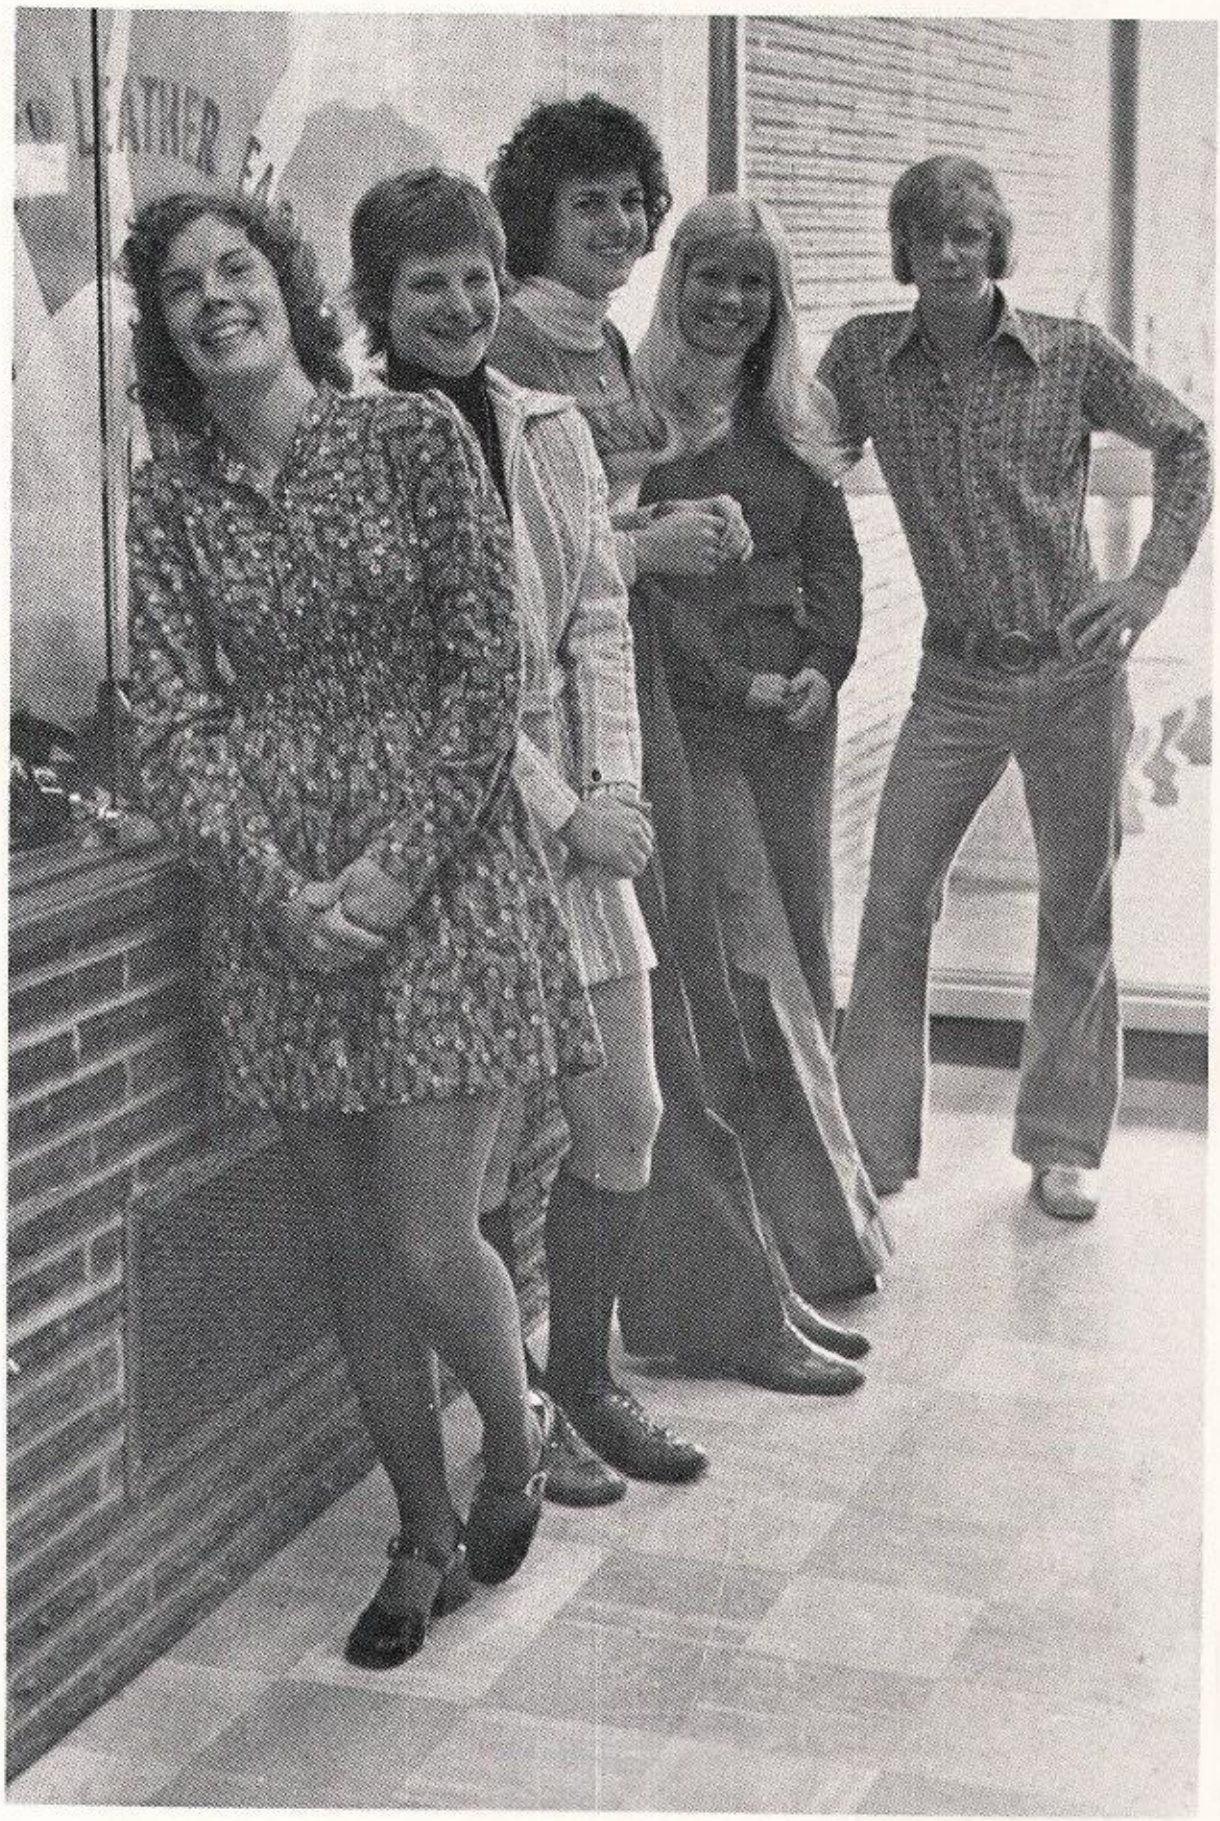
Under the leadership of chairman Stacie Dodd, the Junior Class won the May Fete skit competition with its memorable, "The Life and Dreams of Goober Cuthburt."

Robin Wall directed, assisted by Mary Turnock. The two of them, along with Kay Holbrook, wrote the script. Mary Jensen and Denise Ehman did the choreography.

The performance featured Kevin Hillier as Goober, Stacie Dodd as Sally Ann, Lester Scuito as Brutus, Gary Morean as the Sandman, Jeff Strother as Mac, Brenda Bethune as the Secretary, and Dorothy Cushman as Mother.



JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Stacie Dodd, Vice-President; Gaby Starr, President; Sue Griffith, Treasurer; Trista Waarvick, Secretary; and Bob Hinkel, Social-Coordinator.

Although they didn't win the May Fete competition, the Seniors certainly had lots of people talking about their skit. Eloise Carson was chairman.

Some of the main characters included Dan Summers as the athlete, Lisa Finch as the gangster chick, Greg Simmons as the businessman, Steve Roth as the politician, Randy Perryman as the freak, Eloise Carson as the graduating girl, Jeff Grant as the graduating boy, and Carrie Wilson as the housewife. Dave Briggs was MC and Diane Balzer was music coordinator.

Group chairmen were Janelle Pinkney, businessmen; Barb Wight, Politician; Carole Breck, freak; Sabrina Bartlett, housewife; Cathy Birr, athlete; and Kim Rowse, gangster.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Jeff Grant, Social-Coordinator; Steve Roth, Treasurer; Vicki Poth, Vice-President; Terry Brooks, Secretary; and Jim Neill, President.

Unable to secure a picture of Senior Senators and alternates John Yandle, Greg Kent, Greg Simmons, Lori Lagers, Ruth Omdahl, Dave Schneider, Kim Rouse, Janelle Pinkney, Eloise Carson, Bill Claunch, Jan Pittenger and Randy Perryman, Willy Young, editor of the Sancheteer, submitted this photograph instead.

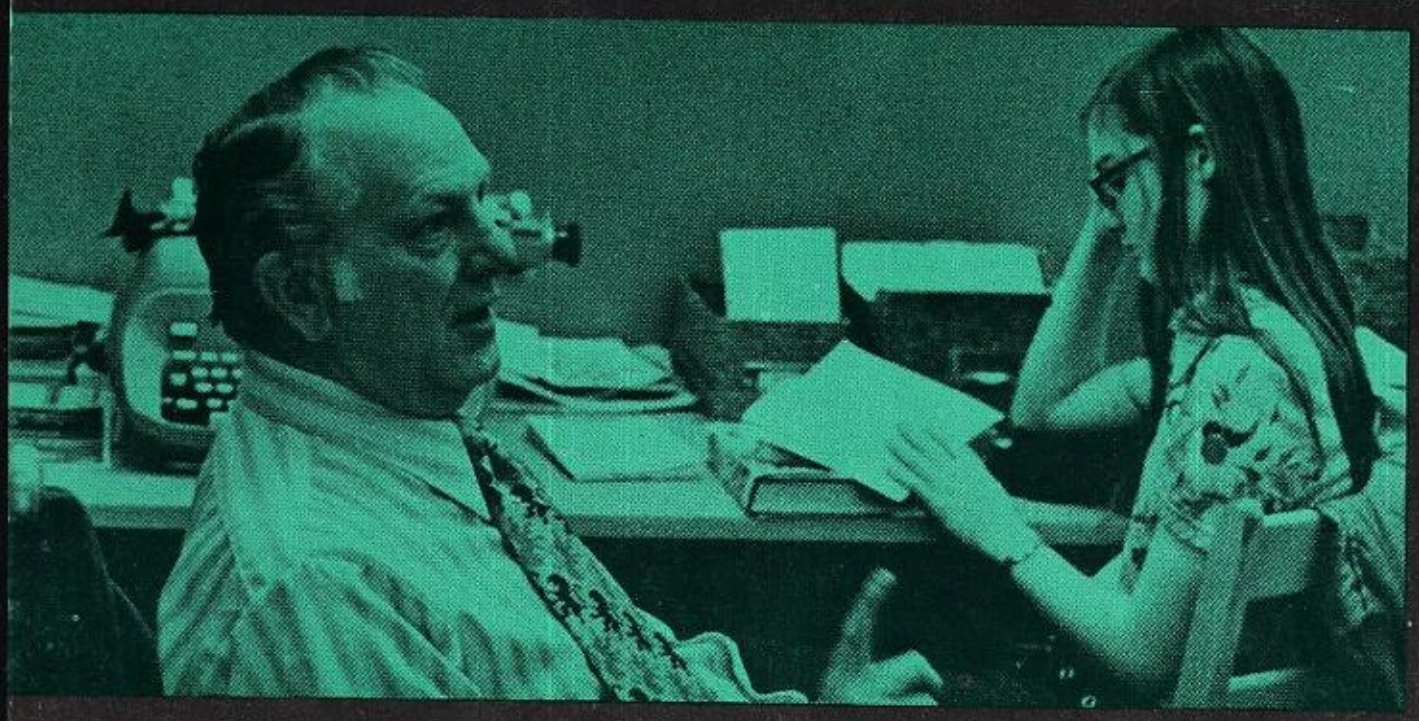
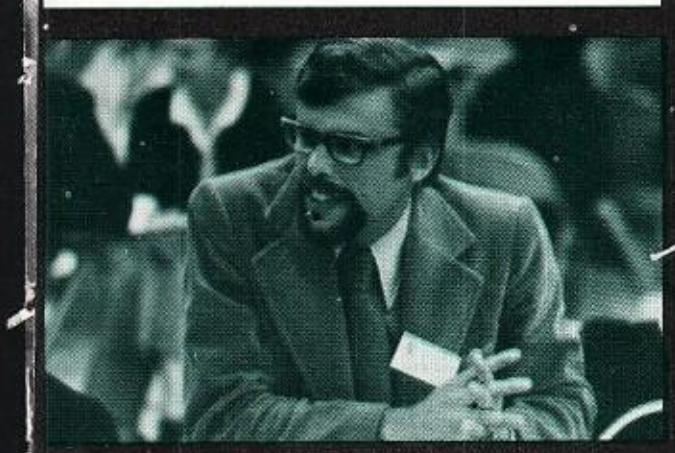
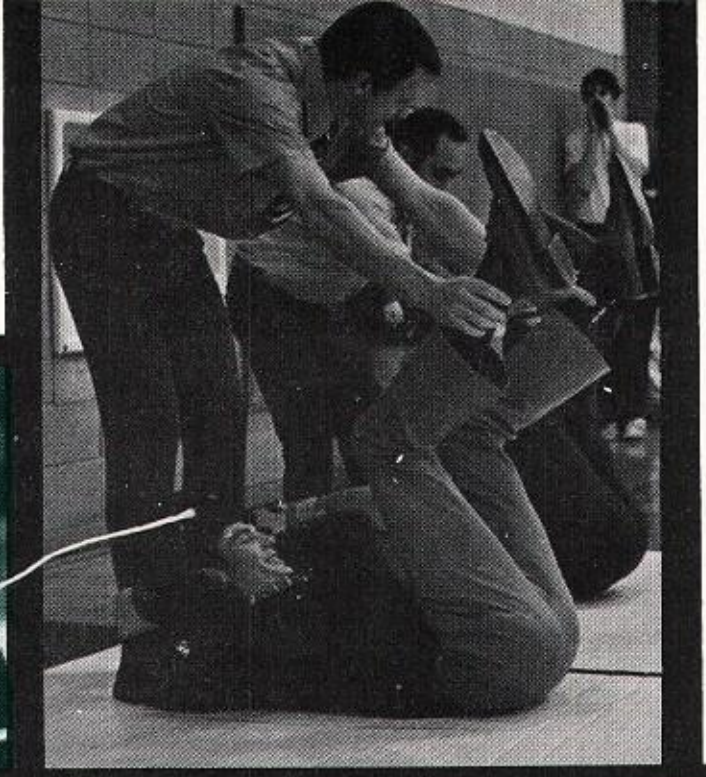
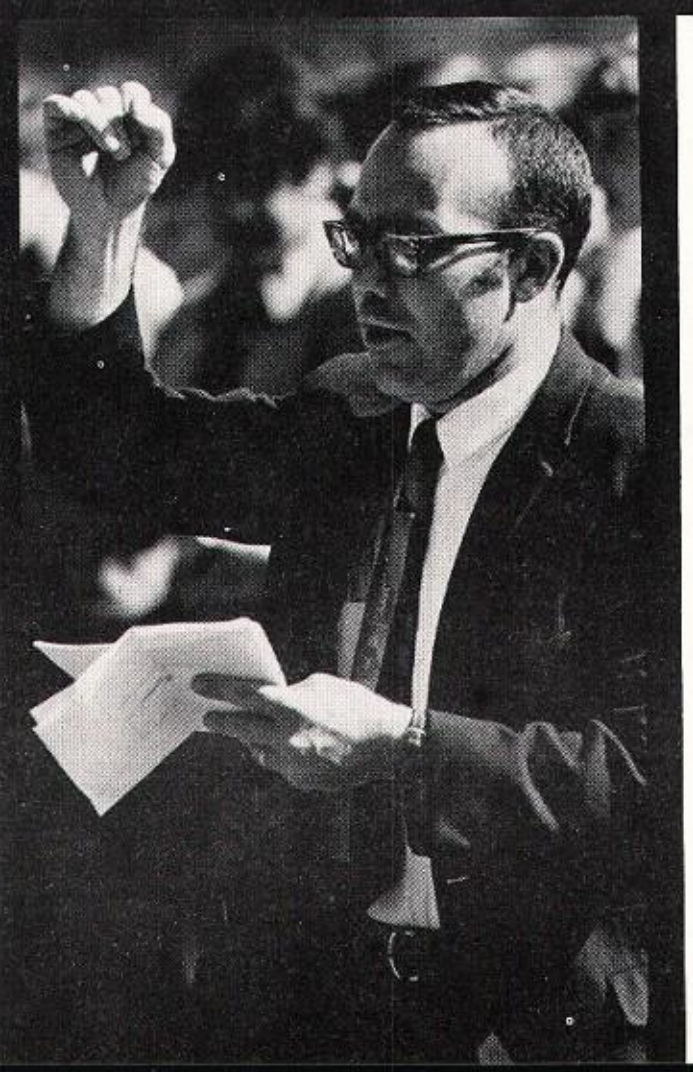
LEADERSHIP









you are my teacher;
i look to you for knowledge and guidance and understanding teach me facts teach me rules, but don't forget to teach me about life
do this by your actions,
your comments,
your techniques
if you have helped me to realize the key to live life is within myself,
then you have truly given
then you are a teacher.

SCHOOL BOARD

Although unseen, the Board of Directors for school district 7 has almost complete power over the school as students began to realize later on in the year.

In a struggle for open campus, ASB President John Bassett announced to students after the Chinook assembly that they boycott classes in protest to the current closed campus regulation.

That night President Bassett went before the school board to present his proposal. The school board took it into consideration, but no action was taken.

Business manager, Don Rice, and assistant superintendent, Kent Myers, consider a point about the budget at school board meeting.

with it, become a part of it. let the abstract nature of the present carry you into an understanding, an acceptance, an eternal peace. this moment can allow the knowledge of life to flow into you... only you hold the power of now.

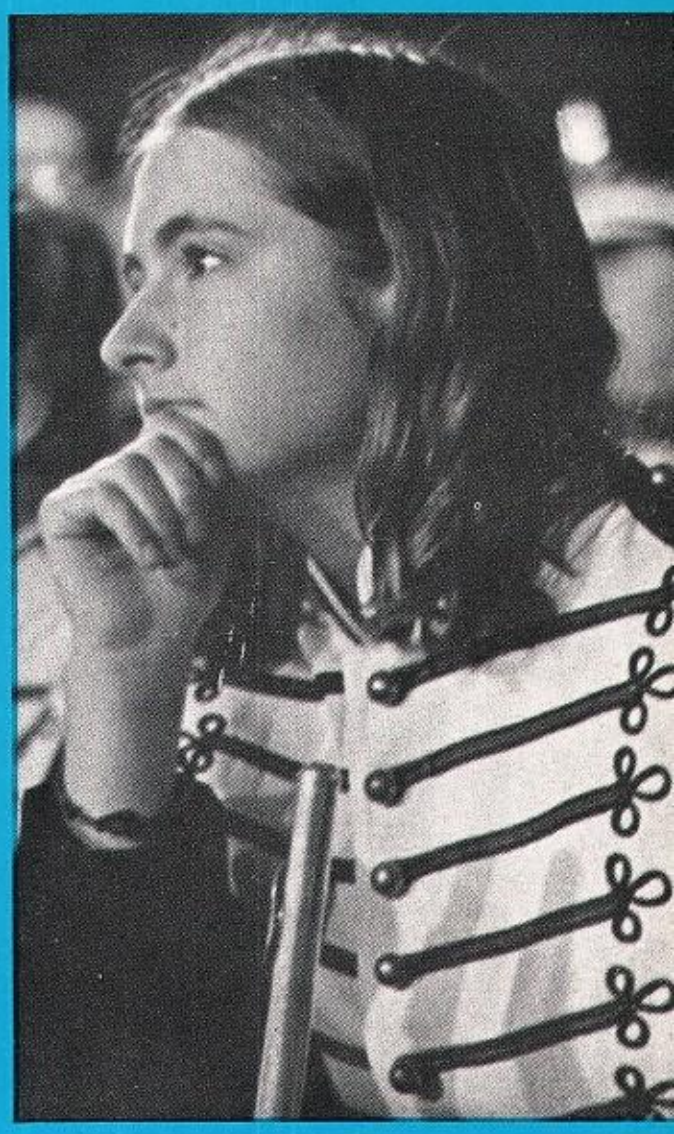
PROLOGUE



dare to become a part of life.
dream your impossible dream
then make it come true.
look over the time we've spent together. if we've discovered one truth, or found one friend, or experienced peace of mind, we've discovered the sensitivity of life. we've helped each other find things we could never have found alone. dare to become a part of life, and life will become a part of you.
